

Yachats to host world-class musicians Nov. 13-14

YACHATS — Music will reign over the central Oregon coastal village of Yachats Nov. 13-15, at the Rainspout Music Festival. World-class performers will delight concert goers with an eclectic mix of Celtic, Bluegrass, New Orleans Brass, folk, country, gypsy violin and blues.

There will be intimate shows all around town for every musical taste, special “meet the artists” sessions, an Irish dance lesson and more.

Featured performers will include internationally renowned Celtic musicians Winifred Horan, Johnny Connolly and Cary Novotny performing as a trio. Seattle’s Del Rey will perform amazing guitar and ukulele playing.

Acoustic Guitar Magazine calls Rey “one of the greatest modern players of the resonator guitar.”

The folk world is represented by Pacific Northwest legends Kate Power and Steve Einhorn.

Innovative cellist Gideon Freudmann is on the bill, as well as The Transcendental

Brass Band from Portland.

“To bring this level of musicianship to a little town of 600 folks on the Oregon coast is amazing,” said music director Jim D’Ville. “We’ve booked musicians in genres from bluegrass to New Orleans Second line brass and everything in between.

“There is literally something for everyone, and I guarantee there will be musical moments people will never forget.”

Spend a music-filled weekend travel guru Arthur Frommer names one of his 10 favorite travel destinations in the world.

Tickets available for annual Crab Crack

The fifth annual Florence Crab Crack is a sure fire remedy for the dreaded “cabin fever,” which threatens to afflict the general populace of the central Oregon coast every winter.

Get your ticket and join the other 399 people who will attend the Crab Crack at the Florence Events Center on Saturday, Feb. 6, from 4 to 7 p.m. Enjoy great food and company while aiding the less fortunate in this area.

All the proceeds from this event will benefit Florence Food Share, a local food pantry that provides resources to those facing hunger in Western Lane County.

Oregon coast Dungeness crab, along with pasta, coleslaw, garlic bread, sodas, coffee and BJ’s dessert will be served by “crab head” volunteers. A no-host bar will also be available.

While savoring the delectable crustaceans and side dishes, attendees will also have the opportunity to purchase one or many of the special silent auction items.

Tickets to this event are $35 each, with only 400 tickets to be available. The deadline for ticket purchases is Jan. 25 and will not be available at the door. Past Crab Cracks have sold out early.

Several sponsors are already stepping up to make this event possible. All individuals and companies are welcome to “sponsor a crab” for the event and help Florence Food Share serve those in need in our area.

For more information, arrange group seating or purchase tickets, contact Bob MacDuffee at 541-997-9599 or by email dunesguy97439@yahoo.com.

Beginning Dec. 1, tickets will also be available Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Florence Food Share, 2190 Spruce St.

Call to artists for Little Dickens show

Backstreet Gallery is hosting its annual Little Dickens juried miniature art show, Dec. 5 through Jan. 3.

The exhibit will include 2D and 3D art that are very small in size but great in artistic accomplishment.

Applications with information, rules and size requirements are available at Backstreet Gallery, 1421 Bay St. Everyone is invited to get an application, which are also available at www.backstreetgallery.org.

Entry forms are due by Nov. 23 and delivered Nov. 28-30.

All media are welcome. Best of Show in 2D and 3D art pieces will win a show of three or more pieces in the month of April 2016.

Meet Marly

Marley came into the shelter very emaciated and missing hair due to a bad skin infection. With good food and antibiotics he is slowly but surely getting better. Marley has lived in a home with cats and was reported to do well with the exception of a kitten that he played too rough with. The family had an older dog at one time and they got along well, they are unclear if he would do well with dogs his own age. He has a lot of energy and would do best in a home with children 12 and up.

If you would like to meet Marly any of his friends, please visit us at:
