

THE RECORD

Florence police arrest woman for burglary

The Florence Police Department (FPD) arrested Jesmīne Leah Meltzer, 33, of Florence, in connection to a burglary on Nov. 4.

According to FPD Lt. John Pitcher, officers responded to a reported burglary in progress on Pine Court, where the victim reported she came home and interrupted a burglary.

The suspect then ran from the area.

Officers developed a possible suspect based upon the victim's description and other evidence obtained.

Later that evening, police located and arrested Meltzer on a "fail to appear" warrant for burglary, theft and criminal mischief.

Meltzer's arrest led officers to the discovery of stolen property and additional evidence to charge her with additional counts of burglary and theft from the burglary reported earlier on Pine Court, and an additional charge of unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

Meltzer was transported to Lane County Adult Corrections on all of the above charges.

The FPD is continuing its investigation into additional charges of unlawful entry into a motor vehicle, theft and criminal trespass against Meltzer from a separate reported incident in the area of the burglary.

OBITUARY

HOBERG—Wanda Marie Hoberg, 84, passed away Oct.

26, 2015, with her family at her side.

She was born March 18, 1931, in St. Helens, Ore., the daughter of Irl and Guenavear Ziemer.

Wanda moved to Florence with her family at the age of 8 and graduated from Siuslaw High School in 1949. She married Gary Hoberg in May of 1956.

Gary and Wanda worked together running Hoberg's Chevron for many years and grew to be known and loved in the community. She was active in Soroptomist of Florence. She was also awarded a lifetime membership to the Siuslaw Alumni Association to thank her for being an original founder and for her deep dedication to the Siuslaw High School and her fellow graduates.

Wanda loved her family and enjoyed watching it grow just as much as she loved watching her garden grow. She and Gary both loved to travel and, after the kids were grown and gone, they would load up the RV and head out to enjoy the open road and visit their favorite places.

Wanda is preceded in death by her brother Zane Ziemer.

She is survived by her husband, Gary Hoberg, of Florence; her son Rand, and wife Beverly, Hoberg of Eugene; daughter Shasta, and her husband Kevin McMullen, of Florence; son Jim Hoberg of Florence; grandchildren Anthony and Beige McMullen, McKenzie and Justin Kramer, Jordan and Jammie Hoberg, Jenna Hoberg, Jennifer Hoberg, and Jessica Hoberg; along with her great-grandchildren Allen and Jade McMullen, Gesme, Sahara and Samantha Kramer, and Gavin Hoberg.

A memorial for Wanda will be held Saturday, Nov. 14, at 1 p.m., at Driftwood Shores in Florence.

Donations can be made in her name to the Siuslaw Alumni Association Scholarship Fund.

Contributions can be left at the memorial celebration or with Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

Private interment was held at Pacific Sunset Cemetery.
