

Library seeks your feedback for improvement

What do you love about the Siuslaw Public Library? What could be better? Are there services you would like to see offered by library staff? What is the most important thing the library currently provides?

The Siuslaw Public Library District is getting ready to complete a new five year strategic plan that will determine programs and services offered by the library through 2020.

In preparation for this vital project, Library Director Meg Spencer, the Library Board, staff and volunteers are asking local residents to fill out a short survey about the library.

The results will assist in determining the library's priorities for the coming years.

"I am hoping we'll hear from people throughout the community, including those who aren't currently using the library," said Spencer. "It is so important that we hear from residents of all ages and with all kinds of library experiences to make sure we are providing the best service."

The Siuslaw Public Library user survey is available online at www.SiuslawLibrary.org.

Paper copies are also available at the Florence and Mapleton locations of the library.

Results will be collected through Friday, Dec. 18.

Siuslaw Public Library District Board President Jane Yeeny is excited about the possibilities that will come out of the current strategic planning process.

"We have a great library and great staff here in the Siuslaw region. The community is very supportive, and so many of our residents value all that the Siuslaw Public Library can offer," she said. "This is our chance to move to the next level and become one of the best rural library systems in Oregon. I really want everyone to help guide that journey by taking the survey."

At a recent special Siuslaw Public Library Board meeting dedicated to planning for the survey and plan, board members set a goal of collecting 300 survey responses before the Dec. 18 deadline.

Spencer is positive the library can meet that goal.

"I know we can do it. I know we have hundreds of patrons who care a lot about the library and want to shape the future of what we do," she said.
