OBITUARIES

BERRY—Doris Berry, 87, of Mapleton, passed away Nov. 15, 2015.

Doris Berry

Doris's funeral service will be held on Saturday, Nov. 21, at 11 a.m., at Burns's Riverside

Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

PICKETT—Rowena "Faye" Pickett, 92, of Salem, formerly of Florence, passed away Nov. 11, 2015.

Rowena Pickett

Faye was born Jan. 19, 1923, in Foster, Ore., a sixth-generation Oregonian.

Due to the death of her mother, Faye was raised by her maternal grandparents, Charles and Almona Peck, on a farm in Foster. During the school year, she also lived with her paternal grandmother, Nancy Gedney, in Sweet Home.

In 1943, she married Ernest Pickett, also of Sweet Home, in Salinas, Kan., where he was stationed as a B-29 pilot. Ernie was later shot down over Japan and became a POW.

After the war, they owned and operated a restaurant/bus depot in Sweet Home and later owned road-building and logging companies.

Their two sons, Dick and Tim, were born in Sweet Home. In the early 1950s, the family moved to Florence, where they went into the auto parts business and had a third child, Kristi.

Faye and Ernie were both active in the community. Faye was also an excellent watercolor artist, a hobby which she developed in Florence and continued with passion to the end of her life.

Upon retirement, Faye and Ernie moved to Springfield, Ore., where they avidly enjoyed University of Oregon sporting events.

After Ernie's death in 1999, Faye moved to Salem and continued a busy social life at Hidden Lakes active living residence.

Faye developed many close friendships at Hidden Lakes and remained there for 15 years, busy with her activities, family and friends. She eventually came to live with her daughter, Kristi, and Kristi's husband, Don Negri.

Faye had an easy-going and loving personality and it was always a pleasure to have her near. She truly enjoyed people and genuinely loved her many friends.

Faye is survived by her three children: Dick Pickett and his wife, Peggy, of Springfield; Tim Pickett of Eliot, Maine; and Kristi Negri and her husband, Don, of Salem.

She loved her children and many grandchildren dearly, and was the proud great-grandmother of seven.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, Nov. 21, at 2 p.m., at the Sweet Home Christian Church, 1825 Long St., in Sweet Home.

Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service is assisting the family.

CIRCLE—Joe Circle, 55, of Florence, passed away Nov. 15, 2015.

Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

KOURY—William "Bill" Koury, 84, passed away Nov. 1, 2015.

He was born in Alberta, Canada, on Jan. 23, 1931.

Bill moved his family to Seattle, Wash., in 1965.

He was married to his wife, Mary, for 60 years. They had three daughters: Jacquelyn,

William Koury

Pamela and Kara-Lee.

Bill was a Mason, Shriner and Elks member.

He had numerous hobbies, including "RVing," fishing, cruising, boating and woodworking.

Bill was a great father and husband and a good friend to many. He will be missed.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

Dear Friends in Western Lane County,

We have a wonderful opportunity this Christmas!

We are going to raise money for The Salvation Army in Western Lane County. You will see the Red Kettles at major grocery stores and in Old Town Florence. You will hear the sounds of ringing bells and wishes for a 'Merry Christmas' between Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve. 100% of this effort will be volunteer. The Western Lane Community Foundation will establish a new Salvation Army Fund that will provide moneys annually for services to our community once we reach our minimum goal of $10,000. Will you please help us?

We need your generous donations to "The Salvation Army" to start this fund. Please put "WLCF" in the lower memo line of your checks. Together we can do this! May God bless you AND may this be the BEST Christmas ever!

Thank You
Florence Area Volunteers

Please send your generous donaon today to:
