Siuslaw students to serve seniors at pie social

Florence-area seniors are invited to a Thanksgiving pie social on Tuesday, Nov. 24, from 1 to 2 p.m., at Siuslaw High School, inside the main entrance in the "Mall" area.

The KCST Viking Hour crew is hosting this event to connect the senior citizen community with high school students. Viking Hour is a student-produced and hosted weekly radio show on 106.9 KCST Monday nights from 7 to 8 p.m.

"This is a chance for Siuslaw students to serve our seniors and thank them for all they have done for us," said Claire Waggoner, the student producer of the show. "I am hoping this will become an annual event."

Grocery Outlet is helping sponsor the event. Kyle Lewis and the Siuslaw Culinary Arts program are baking the pies.

For more information, call Claire Waggoner at 541-999-6876.

Homegrown raises funds for school garden program

Salvation Army to host 'Kettle Kick-off' Thursday

Tomorrow, Nov. 19, beginning at 10 a.m., The Salvation Army will be hosting a Kettle Kick-off with Geraldine Lucio, owner of Old Town Barbershop.

Mayors Rebecca Robinson Ruede of Dune City and Joe Henry of Florence will join local Sam Spayd to draw attention to the opportunity to "stand at kettle" this Christmas season in Florence and help raise funds to help others through The Salvation Army.

Church and civic leaders are invited to come and learn how they can be involved in this year's Kettle Campaign.

Moneys raised will benefit Western Lane County.

The general public is invited to attend.

Six locations in Florence will have kettles daily from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas eve, including Fred Meyer, BiMart, Grocery Outlet, Safeway and Old Town Barbershop.

Volunteers generally "stand kettle" in two-hour shifts, ring a bell and greet and thank shoppers for their generosity.

Church choirs and local musicians often volunteer to provide music while their members volunteer. Blocks of time at specific locations can be arranged for civic groups.

Many volunteers are needed.

A free "Thank You Night Movie" at City Lights Cinemas for all volunteers and supporters of this effort on Sunday, Dec. 27, with awards for Outstanding Kettle Volunteer and Outstanding Kettle Church/Civic Group.

Call Florence Kettle Coordinator Janet Snow at 559-289-3063 or Bill Olson at 503-880-0680 to volunteer or for more information.

Laurel Bay to hold holiday open house

Laurel Bay Gardens owners Lisa and David Sedlacek, and their staff, welcome the public this Saturday, Nov. 21, for a holiday open house from 2 to 7 p.m.

"We invite everyone to get a relaxing and festive start to the holidays," says Lisa. "There will be yummy hot cider and cookies and samples of our tasty Oregon jams, jellies and honey, along with our famous frog balls (pickled Brussels sprouts) and hawg balls (spicy hot onions)."

Visitors can also enter a drawing for a $50 Laurel Bay Gardens gift certificate.

This year, Laurel Bay Gardens is featuring hand-made Christmas wreaths. All proceeds from wreath sales this year will benefit the Senior Memory Care Respite Program.

Staff will offer wreath-making demonstrations.

"Bring your greens and we will help you make a wreath for the holidays," Lisa says. "We will also teach visitors how to pick healthy seasonal plants for indoor or outdoor use, and demonstrate other fun, new, decorating ideas for this year."

Laurel Bay has a variety of living Christmas trees, garden fresh evergreen and dried floral wreaths, healthy locally-grown poinsettias, holly, holiday-scented candles and new indoor and outdoor holiday décor.

"Come and welcome this holiday season at Laurel Bay Gardens, where you can create light, warmth, whimsy, and cheer in your home for the holidays," said Lisa.
