Siuslaw Rotary Interact Club stood in solidarity with the people of Paris by holding up signs and flags to honor victims and support survivors. The students in the club felt this was appropriate, as this year's Rotary Exchange Student is Lucas Menez, from France.

Submit nominations now for Siuslaw Awards

The eighth annual Siuslaw Business Awards event is fast approaching. The awards banquet, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will take place Jan. 20 at the FEC.

This prestigious event recognizes excellence in the local business community by naming recipients for awards in Excellence in Customer Service, Curb Appeal, Nonprofit Achievement, Community Caring and the Stu Johnston Business of the Year Award.

This year, the Florence Chamber has added a new category: Innovation in Business.

The recipient of this award will be a business that has introduced an innovative product or service, or operates in a mode where innovation is built into the culture of the company.

The Siuslaw Awards also recognizes two outstanding individuals in the community by honoring them with the Future First Citizen Award and the First Citizen Award.

The First Citizen Award recognizes that individual who has given selflessly to the community based on community involvement, leadership and overall community impact.

The Future First Citizen Award recognizes that student based on his or her academic success as well as civic involvement and contributions to the community.

The Florence Area Chamber of Commerce will also recognize an individual or business that has selflessly given of their time and efforts in supporting the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce and its efforts with the Distinguished Service Award.

Anyone can choose to nominate their own or another business for the Siuslaw Business Awards. Applications are available now either at the Florence Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center or online at www.florencechamber.com.

Nominations must be submitted to the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce by Dec. 11.

First Citizen and Future First Citizen nomination forms are available through area service clubs on Dec. 1, and are due back to the Chamber by Dec. 20.

DMV offices to be closed Nov. 26, 27

All Oregon DMV offices, along with other state offices, will be closed on both Thanksgiving Day Nov. 26, and Friday, Nov. 27.

Customer wait times tend to be longer on the days just before and after holidays and weekends, so DMV urges customers to do business by mail or online, if possible, or plan their visits to DMV before Wednesday, Nov. 25, or after Monday, Nov. 30.

DMV also suggests that you first check www.OregonDMV.com before visiting a field office in person to make sure you have everything you need.

You can complete some DMV business online or find out how to make your visit as efficient as possible.

If you do need to visit DMV in person, you can first check wait times for many offices during normal business hours at www.OregonDMV.com.
