

Rocky Horror to screen at City Lights tonight

City Lights Cinemas, 1930 Highway 101, will screen cult-favorite "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" tonight at 8:30 p.m., along with two short horror films by local filmmakers Sean Sisson and Alexander Sevan.

Audience participation and costumes are encouraged, though City Lights staff request that waterguns, hot dogs and toast not enter the theater.

City Lights also asks that attendees follow guidelines when participating in the show, and emphasize that nothing can be thrown at the screen or onto the stage.

For tickets and more information, visit www.citylightscinemas.com.

For more information on audience participation in Rocky Horror, City Lights recommends reading the online list at www.badmovies.org/movies/rockyhorror/audience.
