Fishing from 1B

tide water. Casting lures or bobber fishing tends to be the most productive this time of year.

SILETZ RIVER: Chinook, coho, steelhead, cutthroat trout

The fall Chinook fishery is producing fair to good results with recent rains moving a lot of fish out of tide water.

The wild coho fishery continues through Nov. 30 with a daily bag limit of 1 adult coho and seasonal limit of 2 adult coho (in aggregate with other areas with the same bag limit).

Summer steelhead fishing is fair to good in the upper river above Moonshine Park.

WILSON RIVER:
Steelhead, Chinook

Fall Chinook fishing should be fair to good. Fish will be spread out from tide-water upstream. Anglers are reminded that the river above Jordan Creek is closed to all salmon fishing. Summer steelhead fishing should improve with better flows.

YAQUINA RIVER:
Chinook, coho, cutthroat trout

Anglers are having fair to good results for fall Chinook Trolling herring or spinners during the incoming tide through the high slack typically. Recent rains have moved a good portion of fish to the upper tide water reaches and above.

The wild coho fishery is open through Nov. 30 with a daily bag limit of 1 adult coho and seasonal limit of 2 adult coho (in aggregate with other areas with the same bag limit).

COOS COUNTY LAKES AND PONDS: Trout, large-mouth bass, yellow perch

Fall trophy trout were stocked in October in Bradley Lake. Anglers fishing from small boats or pontoons have been catching several trout. About 50 large rainbow trout from Bandon Hatchery were stocked into Butterfield Lake.

These trout are leftovers that did not get used in family fishing events this past summer.

Fishing for largemouth bass has been good in many of the Coos County lakes. As the water cools down fishing for bass will be good throughout the day. Bass will be concentrated near drop-offs and structure like submerged logs.

Yellow perch fishing will start to pick up this month in lakes like Saunders Lake.

Fair from 1B

Admission to the event was free.

In addition to fun activities and information on healthy living, the PTA also held drawings at the end of the day for bikes, scooters, skateboards, footballs and more.

The SABC kicked things off earlier that morning at 8:30 a.m. at Hans Petersen Memorial Field, hosting its first-ever Civil War Fitness Challenge walk/run, which included a 3K walk/run and a 5K awards race, along with free kids' races.
