Deadwood man dies in hit and run

STAFF REPORT
Siuslaw News

Oregon State Police (OSP) is continuing its investigation into the death of a Deadwood man on Sunday morning.

Shiloh Sundstrom, 34, a graduate from Mapleton High School.

He was working as a teaching assistant at Oregon State University and earning his Ph.D. from the College of Earth, Ocean and Atmospheric Science.

On Nov. 22, at about 10:10 a.m., OSP troopers and emergency personnel responded to a call on Highway 34 near milepost 1, just east of Corvallis. The caller reported that a pedestrian had been struck by a vehicle.

Upon emergency crews arriving on scene, they located a deceased male, later identified as Sundstrom, on the shoulder of the highway.

Preliminary information indicates the male was on the south side of Highway 34 when he was struck by a vehicle that fled the scene.

According to the OSP, evidence left at the scene indicated the vehicle was possibly a white Suzuki.

The driver and vehicle involved in the incident have been located, but names and other details have not been released. Detectives from the OSP Criminal Investigations Division are continuing the investigation.

OSP was assisted by Corvallis Police, Corvallis Fire and the Oregon Department of Transportation.
