NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

Mapleton junior Hunter Simington had eight points and 11 rebounds against Yoncalla.

Sailors from 1B

Crook said of the Eagles, who the Sailors played last season at the Baker Invitational. “We knew coming in that they were going to be tough.”

Still, the Sailors had scoring from six team members, including eight points, 11 rebounds and four steals from junior Hunter Simington.

In addition, junior Nick Smith had his best game of the season, posting seven points, three rebounds and one blocked shot. Junior point guard Tyler Packebush knocked down six points to go with a pair of rebounds and two steals.

Off the bench, freshman Evan Moso gave the Sailors an offensive spark, scoring five points and nabbing six steals.

In the paint, 6-foot-5 sophomore Dominic Wells was a dominant force with five blocked shots, six rebounds and four points.

Sophomore Tanner Wilson had three rebounds and a steal, with freshman Gabe Simington scoring two points and grabbing two rebounds.

“What I really liked was that we never quit,” said Crook. “We just kept playing better and better.”

Tuesday, the Sailors will kick off another week on the road and chance to continue improving as they head into league season against Triangle Lake.

Thursday, Mapleton will be at Siletz.

On both days, the girls will tip off at 5:30 p.m., followed by the boys at 7 p.m.

Viks from 1B

managed to sneak in a jumper at the buzzer to keep Siuslaw within five, 8-13, entering the second quarter.

Throughout the period, Siuslaw stayed within three buckets while amping up its defense and blocking shots with swats from 6-foot-5 senior center Reese Siegel.

But in the last two minutes leading into the half, the Tigers scratched out six points after switching to a perimeter offense that extended their lead to 21-9 over the Viks at halftime.

Coming into the second half, Siuslaw scored six quick points off of feeds to Siegel under the rim, drawing within 10 points, 13-23.

The Tigers closed the backdoor after that, then went on to score 11 unanswered points off of free throws and fastbreaks for a 34-13 lead.

Siegel scored the final bucket of the period, on a feed from sophomore Jared Brandt at the buzzer.

The Viks scored only seven points in the last quarter, with baskets from Siegel, Jake Hickson and a long 3-pointer from sophomore Johnny Rollins at the buzzer for the final score, 24-40.

Siegel led scoring with 10 points and four rebounds.

Last night, Siuslaw hosted Elmira (after press deadlines).

Tuesday, Siuslaw will be on the road at Sutherlin.

Tipoff is 7 p.m.
