Galavant

Saturday at 8 p.m. on KATU, KEZI

"Monty Python's Spamalot" indicates this musical-comedy series' approach. With a score by Oscar-winning composer Alan Menken ("Aladdin") and lyricist Glenn Slater ("Tangled"), the saga follows hero Galavant's (Joshua Sasse) quest to even the score with King Richard ("Psych" alum Timothy Omundson), who stole his true love (Mallory Jansen). Vinnie Jones also stars in the "Pilot." Three more episodes follow, and Season 2 starts the next night.

Cooper Barrett's Guide to Surviving Life

Sunday at 8:30 p.m. on KLSR

The post-collegiate world isn't what the title character (Jack Cutmore-Scott, "Kingsman: The Secret Service") anticipated in "How to Survive Your Loveable Jackass," this comedy's premiere. Still seeking the perfect job for himself, he's interested in his neighbor (Meaghan Rath) and often sought out by his family-man brother (Justin Bartha). Cooper's roommates (Charlie Saxton, James Earl) also inspire him to offer life lessons from his own perspective.

American Idol

Wednesday at 8 p.m. on KLSR

It's the beginning of the end for the competition that brought initial fame to such talents as Carrie Underwood, Kelly Clarkson and Jennifer Hudson. This 15th round also is the final one, as host Ryan Seacrest and judges Harry Connick Jr., Jennifer Lopez and Keith Urban launch one last "search for a superstar." As usual, it begins with the sometimes comical, sometimes poignant audition episodes. The two-part season premiere concludes Thursday.
