

Print Arts Northwest on display at Coos Art Museum

COOS BAY — Coos Art Museum presents, “From Here to There,” an exhibition of original fine art prints by members of Print Arts Northwest.

The exhibition, which will be held in the museum’s Maggie Carl and Vaughan Galleries runs through Feb. 6, 2016.

Founded in 1981 as the Northwest Print Council, Print Arts Northwest creates opportunities to represent professional printmakers in the greater Northwest Region and educate the general public about printmaking.

This exhibition highlights the wide array of aesthetics and techniques employed by more than three decades of Print Arts Northwest Artists.

‘Laughing Cauldrons’ at Coos Museum

COOS BAY – Through Feb. 13, 2016, Coos Art Museum will be featuring a solo exhibition of artist Joyce H. Spicer in the Mabel Hansen Gallery.

Spicer was selected for a one-person exhibition at Coos Art Museum after her large and vibrant multi-media vase form sculpture “Copper Cauldron” won the People’s Choice prize in the 2014 CAM Biennial.

Port Orford resident, Joyce H. Spicer uses a combination of natural materials and hand-made paper to create unique basket forms.

She studied at Oregon State College in Ashland and under several local weavers.

Coos Art Museum has been a cultural focal point of Oregon’s scenic Southern Coast since 1966. It occupies the historic 1936 Art Deco U.S. Federal Building in downtown Coos Bay.

The Museum offers a wide range of arts activities including exhibitions, art classes and lectures. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, and 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday. Museum admission is $5 general, $2 for students, veterans and seniors, and free to museum members.
