NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

Junior post Reese Siegel forces his way inside the paint for an offensive rebound against Waldport on Tuesday.

Viking from 1B

And Siuslaw did just that, rallying from a 29-14 halftime deficit to tie the game at 35 heading into the fourth quarter with scoring from Siegel, Mitchell, Hickson and Kenneth Thrall — whose sank a pair of free throws for the tie.

The Irish scored the first two buckets of the period, with Mitchell draining a long 3-pointer to keep Siuslaw within one point, 39-38 as the clock cleared 6:10.

Waldport answered with its own long ball and a pair of charity shots, then another 3-pointer to move ahead 47-38.

Down the stretch, Waldport made the most of its free throws, scoring 10 of its 17 points in the quarter from the foul line for a 52-43 win.

Mitchell led scoring with 11 points and seven rebounds. Hickson had nine points and six boards, and Siegel posted eight points and nine rebounds on the night.

Last night, the Viks opened the two-day Sky-West Crossover Tournament by taking on Klamath Union (after press deadlines) and will take on host Phoenix today at 11 a.m.

Siuslaw will open the Far West season Jan. 15 on the road at South Umpqua.

The Vikings will return to their home hardwood Jan. 19 to host Marshfield.

Both games tip off at 7:30 p.m.

NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

Meet Honeyman

Hi! My name is Honeyman and I want to be your furry friend. About 2-1/2 years ago some nice people brought me into the Florence Area Humane Society. They said they had found me roaming Honeyman Campground. I am kind of honey colored and I can be pretty darn sweet so the name stuck. I love to play and occasionally I get a little hyper but not to worry, the shelter staff will give me some tasty treats that help to calm me and they seem to work pretty good!

If you would like to meet Honeyman any of his friends, please visit us at:
