

Community invited to share vision tomorrow night

The last chance for community members to help shape a vision for the Siuslaw Region will be held tomorrow, Jan. 28, at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St., beginning at 5 p.m.

The meeting is the next step in nearly a year of exploration and conversations, led by the Vision Action Team from the Siuslaw Pathways Program.

An open-house format will run from 5 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 8 p.m., with a formal presentation of the ideas and concerns from 6 to 7 p.m.

Light refreshments will be available during the evening.

The split-time format is to accommodate people who may have to work late or who want to be home at an earlier time.

"We encourage anyone who has ideas about the future of our community to attend," commented Becky Goehring, a member of the vision team. "So many people with ideas post on Facebook pages or in conversations around town about what's missing, what we need. Here's a place to have those ideas included in the discussion."

Anyone residing in Dunes City, Florence and upriver communities from Mapleton to Deadwood is encouraged to attend.

During the open house, people will have a chance to circulate and comment on ideas that have already been submitted at earlier Focus Group meetings. There is also a chance to add new ideas and concerns during that time.

The 2025 Siuslaw Vision is the culmination of the work being done by the Siuslaw Region Visioning Project, supported by Rotary of Florence, The Siuslaw Public Library, the City of Florence and The Ford Family Foundation.

The work has grown out of the Pathways program, which was offered to the region by The Ford Family Foundation in 2014.

Win gourmet dinner for 10 at Senior Center

The Florence Senior Center is offering a gourmet prime rib dinner for 10 to the winner of their annual dinner raffle fundraiser.

Although chef Larry Osgood has retired from serving weekly meals, he has agreed to come back to prepare his delicious, five-course feast for 10 people.

The winner of the raffle will be drawn on St. Patrick's Day, March 17.

The winner chooses the date for the meal and can invite nine others to join him or her for the dinner.

The raffle is open to the community and all ages are encouraged to participate.

"We printed only 300 tickets, so your chances of winning are really good," said Christine May, Senior Center Board President. "Larry is an amazing chef and his dinners are fabulous. This is a 'don't miss' opportunity."

Tickets can be purchased for $10 each at the Florence Senior Center, 1570 Kingwood St., between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Call 541-997-8844 to reserve a ticket in your name.

Senior Center Board Members also have tickets for sale.

Proceeds from the fundraiser will benefit the activities and operations of the Florence Senior Center.

The Senior Center offers daily meals and a variety of classes and activities for area seniors.
