Cast announced for CROW spring production of 'Shrek' musical

After three intensive days of auditions and early callbacks in January, CROW (Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops) announced the cast selected for its upcoming youth musical, "Shrek the Musical, Jr.," to be performed April 15-17 at the Florence Events Center.

"The competition was fierce this year," said artistic director Melanie Heard. "We had many kids who could easily have snagged any of these roles, and believe me when I say that the meeting to make final decisions on the cast was a long, late night."

In the end, Heard said she hoped the experience provided some great opportunities for local youth to shine, as well as provide a great learning experiences for kids wanting to know what it's like to go through a professional musical theatre audition.

The title role of "Shrek" will be played by a returning local favorite, Jacob Ternyik. His beautiful Ogress "Fiona" will be portrayed by 16-yearold songbird Lacey Seeley, in her first leading role for the nonprofit youth theatre organization.

Shrek's hilarious wisecracking sidekick "Donkey" will be played by funnyman Cameron Utz, and the short on charm "Lord Farquaad" will be portrayed by young comedienne Tristin Reber.

Additional supporting roles include "Pinocchio" (Haylee Cole), "Dragon" (Nyah Vollmar) and the "Captain of the Guards" (Ceasar Castillo).

There are also many featured fairy tale and Kingdom of Duloc roles, as well as a "tap dance surprise" that the Cast members rehearse for CROW's upcoming spring production of "Shrek the Musical, Jr."

The production team has held several meetings and is in the process of securing backdrops, preparing set pieces for painting and design, renting a giant dragon, making costumes and props, and readying the needed materials for the first rehearsal.

CROW strives to provide an extensive arts educational experience for all involved from beginning to end. Sponsorship and program advertising opportunities are available for local businesses or individuals who are interested, by contacting Heard at: 541-999-8641.

Heard points out that there are also many volunteers who will be working tirelessly to add the sparkle and polish required in a show of this size.

"Shrek Jr." marks CROW's fifth mainstage musical at the FEC, following a string of successes including "Beauty and the Beast, Jr.," "The Music Man, Jr.," "The Little Mermaid, Jr.," and last year's "Once Upon A Mattress."
