

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

CHAMBERS—Robert Gregory “Greg” Chambers, 67, of Florence, passed away Jan. 19, 2016.

Gregory Chambers

Greg was born Aug. 12, 1948, to Robert Glenn Chambers and Beverly Jeanne (Lane) Chambers.

He was a graduate of Noti High School in Noti, Ore., and became a long-haul truck driver. After living in Cedar Falls, Iowa, he moved to Florence in 1993.

Greg was a colorful Old Town Coffee Shop regular for many years. He brought a lot of joy and laughs to all who got to know him, and everlasting memories to all that had the fortune to meet him.

Greg battled esophagus cancer for the past five years. During that time he turned to the Swisshome Evangelical Church and with faith he was able to find the strength and hope for the future.

With that knowledge and faith, Greg went home with peace.

He is survived by his wife, Linda Joyce (Backes) Chambers, of Florence; his daughter, Angela Chambers, of Cedar Falls, Iowa; step-children Michael T. Backes of Eugene and Tanya W. Backes of Sacramento, Calif.; his brothers and sisters: Debbie (and husband Leroy) Boldt, formerly Salem; Chris Chambers of Salem; Terry Jacobson of Salem; Kim (and husband Jim) Hance of Eugene; Guy Chambers, of Waterloo, Iowa; and many cousins, nieces and nephews

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Robert and Mildred Lane of Eugene; his father, Robert G. Chambers of Waterloo, Iowa; and his sister, Connie Chambers, formerly of Eugene.

A celebration of his life will be held Saturday, Feb. 13, at Swisshome Evangelical Church, beginning at 11 a.m. A potluck will follow his service, which will be led by Pastor Bryan Moore.

BERNHEISEL—Gerald “Gerry” Wayne Bernheisel, 80, of Dallas, Ore., formerly of Florence, died Jan. 3, 2016, in Dallas as a result of pancreatic cancer.

Gerald Bernheisel

He was born in Medford, Ore., to Elizabeth and Nye Bernheisel.

Gerald graduated from Coquille High School in 1954. He married the love of his life, Charlene Vee Fellows, in 1957, and they had three children.

Gerald worked in the produce department for Safeway at the age of 16 in Coquille and then in Coos Bay, and then worked for United Grocers’ Cash and Carry, working up to manager of the store in Coos Bay. He retired from there after 30 years.

Gerald served in the Naval Reserves for several years and enjoyed this very much. He also was a longtime member of the Elks and was an avid NRA member.

He loved going to second-hand stores looking for treasures, fishing, hunting, going to the beach, looking at the stars and taking pictures of the clouds and all types of airplanes.

Survivors include his sister, Janet Cagley; half-brother Milton Bernheisel; his children: Bruce Bernheisel, Kimberly O’Harrow and Lisa Weidman; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Gerald loved his family very much and was a great role model. He was a very special man to his family and friends and will be missed very much.

Burns’s Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. A celebration of life will be held in early summer.

HOLMAN—Beverly “Bev” K. Holman, 65, of Florence, passed away Jan. 31, 2016.

Arrangements are being made through Burns’s Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
