

Siuslaw Tax Service adds Jeff Farm to tax team

Jeff Farm has always enjoyed the challenge of working with numbers and budgets. So after a 32-year career working with Oregon Parks and Recreation Department, it was a natural transition for him to become the newest licensed tax preparer for Siuslaw Tax Service.

Farm graduated from Oregon State University in 1976 with a resource recreation management degree and emphasis in park administration.

Farm spent 25 years in various management positions, acquiring skills in personnel and conflict management, planning and execution of various operational budgets and the preparation of the overall Operations Division biennial budget guided by legislative budget directives.

He served 10 years on the

Florence Lane Community College Advisory Committee working directly with developing by-laws, long-range goals, fundraising and grant selection to meet the financial needs of the students. Farm is currently serving a three-year term on the Lane Community College Budget Committee.

Since retiring in 2010, Farm volunteered for three years as a tax preparer for AARP's volunteer income tax assistance program, gaining certification in basic, intermediate, advanced and military courses.

In 2013, Farm completed the Pacific NW Tax School, followed by passing the state tax preparer exam before working for a private tax business.

He is now starting his third year as a licensed tax professional and said he looks forward to working with the Siuslaw Tax Service team and its clients.

Siuslaw Tax Service is at 1958 17th Street in Florence and can be reached by calling 541-997-9249.
