Florence seeks corrections officer

Florence is accepting applications for a full-time corrections officer through Monday, Feb. 15, at 5 p.m.

The corrections officer is responsible for enforcing the rules and regulations of the City of Florence Jail, preventing escapes, maintaining order and discipline among inmates to and from cells to court and other related appointments and providing supervision of security while maintaining custody of those detained.

The salary will be $22.83 to $26.49 an hour.

A job description with more detail and a list of requirements is available at www.ci.florence.or.us/police/corrections-officer-0.

The application and veterans preference form is also available at this link.

Applications should be submitted to Human Resources, City of Florence, 250 Highway 101, Florence, OR 97439.

Questions may be directed to Florence Public Information Officer Megan Messmer at 541-902-2182.

OBITUARY

HANSEN—Katie Hansen passed away gently and quietly Jan. 12, 2016, in Portland, Ore., surrounded by her family.

Katie Hansen

Katie was born in North Bend on June 22, 1921.

She married Chuck Hansen in Spokane, Wash., in 1940.

After World War II they moved to Bozeman, Mont., and had two children: Ed and Bev.

The family later lived in Spokane, Wash., and Billings, Mont., before Katie and Chuck retired in Florence.

Katie always loved the Oregon coast and Chuck shared her love of living near the ocean.

Katie was an avid gardener all her life, and later in life enjoyed reading, watching football and playing pinochle with friends.

She always looked forward to bingo at the Senior Center in Florence, and later at Town Center Village in Portland, where she moved at age 90 to be near her daughter after breaking her hip in a fall.

Katie is survived by her two children, Edward and Beverly; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Her family all loved living near her for these last few years of her life.

"Sweet journey home, mom," they said.
