Register for FEC's Indoor Yard Sale

The Indoor Yard Sale is coming to the Florence Events Center on April 2.

Applications to be part of the Friends of the Florence Events Center's annual indoor sale are available for nonprofit groups and individuals who wish to rent a booth space to display their goods.

For those who do not have a garage, adequate parking or hard to find locations, this is a perfect solution to be part of this huge sale. Single booths and double spaces are available for a fee from $35 to $90 and there are discounts for nonprofit groups.

Space will be available up until Thursday, March 31, at 5 p.m., for any group or individual to participate in the sale.

For more information on purchasing a booth, come in to the Florence Events Center office at 715 Quince St. or contact Jennifer Connor at the FEC at 541-997-1994.

Home and Garden Show returns March 4-6

Everything for your home, from the roof to beneath the foundation, can be found at the 20th annual Florence Home and Garden Show coming up Friday through Sunday, March 4, 5 and 6, at the Florence Events Center.

More than 40 exhibitors will offer information and products that include cleaning the gutters on your home and leveling the foundation; keeping your plumbing running freely and efficiently; and even ways to equip your kitchen and bath.

There will be entertaining and decorating ideas on the inside, and with Laurel Bay Gardens' centerpiece landscape design, you'll experience an afternoon in Paris with the "Marche de Jardin"... a French garden market featuring local jams, jellies, soaps and garden décor perfect for outdoor entertaining.

Laurel Bay will also greet show-goers at the front door with their outdoor display of bagged soils and bare root fruit trees. Bamboo Dave will showcase his "upcycling" methods; ways to transform used wooden pallets into useful parts of your home or garden.

Cedar Works Spas and Oregon Stove Works join Bamboo Dave outside the front door with more great ways to equip your home for comfort, style and efficiency.

Inside, the energy pros at Central Lincoln PUD will tell you about ways you can save money and energy.

Whiskey Creek Organics, the local Consumer Supported Agriculture, will take reservations for its popular organic and locally grown produce this summer. Kimo's Dips, Celia's Gourmet Foods and Bandon's Face Rock Creamery will also offer a taste or two of what they have to offer.

Show hours are from 2 to 6 p.m. on Friday, March 4; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, March 5; and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, March 6.

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under. Admission is free from 4 to 6 p.m. on Saturday. Half-price coupons will be available next week at Bi-Mart.

The show is sponsored by Three Rivers Casino Resort, Bi-Mart and Central Lincoln PUD. It is presented by Coast Radio and the Siuslaw News.

Community job fair to offer new jobs in Florence

Three Rivers Casino Resort will host a community job fair on Thursday, March 24, from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., in the Casino's Event Center.

The event will offer more than 50 available positions within the local community.

Admission is free and all ages are welcome.

"We are happy to host the community job fair in our Event Center," said Mike Rose, chief operations officer at Three Rivers Casino Resort. "The event will provide ample opportunities for job seekers in Florence."

The event will offer valuable employment opportunities from various businesses in the community. Participants will have the ability to connect with local employers and find resources for a great career.

The job fair will feature on-hand assistance to job seekers provided by Worksource Lane (Employment Department). In addition to job recruitment, the event will feature volunteer opportunities.

"Lane Community College

at Florence is excited to be participating in this event that focuses on local career opportunities and businesses.

"We strive to provide members of our rural community a path to finding a new career or to enhance existing skills to move into the workforce," said Beth Habian, administrative coordinator at Lane Community College.

"Whether you're interested in earning an associate degree, a certificate or planning to transfer to a university, check out what LCC Florence has to offer."

Approximately 24 business and community partners will be represented at the job fair.

There will be several job categories available, including healthcare, grocery stores, restaurants, resorts, youth opportunities, state and federal and education.

Bank, Angell Job Corps, The Siuslaw News and Driftwood Shores are among the employers.

For more information, contact Pam Hickson at 541-902-6504.

Dave's Weekly Garden Tip

It is a great time to plant bare root fruit trees, berries, and shrubs. Make sure you dig a hole two to three times the size of the roots, add our Royal Soil, and work the soil around the bare roots of the plant so that there aren't any air spaces.
