

CDABA issues 'Coastal Waters' artist challenge

REEDSPORT— Coastal Douglas Arts and Business Alliance (CDABA) is inviting local community members from Reedsport, Gardiner, Winchester Bay and Scottsburg to submit work for their third annual artist challenge.

The theme of this year challenge is "Coastal Waters."

All types of original craft and art produced from any and all mediums and materials are welcome.

The piece must fit through a standard door and be ready for display, including a hanging device if appropriate.

Prizes to be awarded include a Viewer's Choice of $50; Mayor's Choice of $50; and $100 for the most original piece that best depicts the theme and includes good design and quality craftsmanship, as determined by a guest judge.

Entry fee for the first piece is $10 and $5 for each additional piece thereafter. Entries are limited to three per artist.

All entries must have a label securely attached in an inconspicuous location that contains the title of the work, the artist's name, address and phone number.

Entries will be accepted at the Mindpower Gallery, 451 Fir Ave., in Reedsport, Ore., 97467, on Friday, June 10, between 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

To download an entry form prior to registration visit www.cityoffreedsport.org.

The show will hang beginning Friday, June 17, in conjunction with the Chainsaw Carving Festival and CDABA's art walk. The opening reception that evening will be at the Mindpower Gallery on Friday, June 17, from 5 to 7 p.m.

The show will end Saturday, June 25. Entries will be available for pick up on either June 28 or 29, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

SOUTH COAST CLAMBAKE JAZZ FESTIVAL SET FOR MARCH 10-13

COOS BAY — Whether you love to jump and jive, swing and sway, or just sit back and tap your toes, the 27th Annual South Coast Clambake Jazz Festival has something for you.

We're pulling out all the stops for the 27th celebration and the South Coast Clambake Jazz Festival has developed a reputation as a Northwest favorite bringing much more than just jazz to the North Bend and Coos Bay event.

The whole thing starts with the warm-up party Thursday, March 10.

Doors open at 6 p.m. in the Salmon Room of The Mill Casino, which will feature the music of Evolution at 6:30 p.m., followed by Young Bucs at 7:45 p.m., then High Street at 9 p.m.

Admission is $10, or $8 with an All-Events badge.

Free to the public from 2 to 5 p.m., Friday, March 11, youth jazz bands from Marshfield and the Myrtle Point high school show choirs and the Southwestern Oregon Community Jazz Band will be featured in the Salmon Room.

Join in for the main events, across four different venues all under one roof at The Mill Casino Hotel. Over the weekend, a weekend full of a wide variety of music, from swing, doo-wop, blues, big band and Zydeco starting Friday night at 5:30 p.m..

Then all day Saturday, March 12, and Sunday, March 13, there will be a free traditional Sunday morning non-denominational Gospel service held in the Salmon room of The Mill, starting at 10 a.m.. The service will feature the music of High Street.

The event is once again expected to draw dancers and music enthusiasts from 12 different states and more than 60 towns in Oregon, including Roseburg, Eugene and Portland and beyond.

"Daily" or "All-Event" ticket badges are available in advanced at www.clambakejazz.com, or you can purchase tickets or at KoKwel Gifts at the Mill Casino or at the door starting Thursday night at warm-up party from 6 to 9 p.m.
