City Lights, TR Hunter showing 'Stagecoach'

TR Hunter Real Estate and City Lights Cinemas are hosting Wild Wild West Night at the cinema, 1930 Highway 101, on Thursday, March 17, at 6:30 p.m. There will also be a noon showing.

City Lights Cinemas will be showing the classic western film "Stagecoach," starring John Wayne.

There will be a costume contest with a prize provided by TR Hunter.

The first 50 tickets are sponsored by TR Hunter and will be free.

This event is a fundraiser for the Oregon Coast Military Museum.

For more information, contact TR Hunter at 541-997-1200 or email City Lights Cinemas at info@citylightscinemas.com.

Siuslaw Friendship Club to elect new officers

The Siuslaw Friendship Club will elect new officers for the 2016-17 year at its March 10 meeting. The nominations are: President Janet Van Kleek, vice-president Pam Thompson, secretary Jeanette Bratcher, and treasurer Dee Darrow.

The club meets on the second Thursday of the month, September through June, for lunch and a general meeting at the Elks Club, beginning at 11 a.m.

A primary goal of the club is raising funds to support Florence charities such as Food Share, Food Backpacks for Kids, Siuslaw Outreach Services (SOS) and the Florence Area Humane Society (FAHS).

In addition to luncheons and fund raisers, the club sponsors card games: five crowns on Tuesday, pinochle on Thursday, and hand-and-foot on the second and fourth Fridays of the month.

Annual dues are $15.

Come for a meeting and/or a card game and get to know the members.

For more information, contact membership chairman Betty Fieldson at 541-997-2842.

Fred Meyer donates to local B&G Club

DAR kicks off National Women's History Month

The local Oregon Dunes chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution kicked off National Women's History Month on Friday, Feb. 26, with guest speaker Boatswain's Mate Brooke Crosley from the U.S. Coast Guard Station Siuslaw River.

The Women's History Month 2016 theme is Honoring Women in Public Service and Government. BM3 Crosley spoke about the history of women in the Coast Guard and various opportunities the Coast Guard provides women today.

Women were first officially assigned as lighthouse keepers as early as the mid-19th century. In 1881, female Lime Rock lighthouse keeper Ida Lewis was awarded the rare and prestigious Gold Lifesaving medal for her heroics.

Surprisingly, women were not fully integrated into active-duty status until 1973, by act of Congress. The ongoing history reveals exceptionally strong role models, giving today's Coast Guard women inspiration and a vision of what they can — and do — accomplish.

Currently, there are five active-duty women assigned to Station Siuslaw River in various roles, with additional female members in the local Coast Guard Flotilla.

Daughters of the American Revolution has an extensive history as well, celebrating 125 years since its founding. It is a nonprofit organization that promotes historic preservation, education and patriotism.

Members are directly descended from patriots involved in the Revolutionary War.

The local DAR chapter participates in community events, offers scholarships and supports local active-duty military and veterans.

For more information, contact local registrar Karen Childs at 541-997-7154 or visit www.dar.org.
