Simon Helberg Solution

How to Get Away With Murder
 Thursday at 10 p.m. on KATU, KEZI
 Season 2 of the drama nears its end with the new episode "There's My Baby," finding Annalise's (Viola Davis) team questioned about the circumstances of the murder of Emily Sinclair. Caleb's (guest star Kendrick Sampson) disappearance coincides with heightened concerns about Philip (guest star Jefferson White). Flashbacks recall more developments in the Mahoney case. Famke Janssen ("Taken") continues her guest role. Matt McGorry also stars.

And Then There Were None
 Sunday at 8 p.m. on LIFE
 Filmed many times (and memorably spoofed by Neil Simon in "Murder by Death"), this new two-part adaptation of Agatha Christie's classic mystery follows 10 strangers, each with a secret, to an isolated location off the southern coast of 1939 England. Their hosts are inexplicably absent, but after each guest is accused of a horrible crime, they are picked off one by one by a mysterious killer. Part 2 airs Monday night. Sam Neill, Charles Dance, Aidan Turner ("Poldark"), Toby Stephens and Miranda Richardson star.

Criminal Minds: Beyond Borders
 Wednesday at 10 p.m. on KVAL
 Introduced in an episode of the parent show last season, this new spinoff drama returns "CSI: NY" alum Gary Sinise to the ranks of television's law enforcers. He now plays the leader of an International Response Team dedicated to helping Americans who run into trouble in other countries. The premiere, "The Harmful One," takes the squad to Thailand in search of kidnapped volunteer workers. Alana De La Garza, Tyler James Williams and Annie Funke also star.
