Port of Siuslaw board seeks budget committee member

The Port of Siuslaw Board of Commissioners invites applications from district residents interested in serving on the budget committee.

Interested persons should obtain an application from the port office at 100 Harbor St., or online at www.portofsiuslaw.com. Applications will be accepted until noon on Friday, March 25.

Applicants must be registered voters residing within the Port of Siuslaw district.

The Port of Siuslaw is a special district authorized by Oregon law to help sustain the economic vitality of western Lane County. The district boundary encompasses most of the Siuslaw River watershed, including the communities of Florence and Dunes

City, and extending upriver to Mapleton, Walton, Lorane and Blachly.

The port is the sponsor of the federal maritime investment in Lane County for channel and jetty maintenance and navigable ocean bars. The port also has significant authority under Oregon statute for local economic development and infrastructure projects that encourage job creation.

The budget committee is a standing committee of five citizen members that sits jointly with the Port Commission to publicly review and revise the annual budget document.

The budget committee establishes the maximum annual expenditures, approves the necessary taxes and finally approves the budget document.

Committee members serve three-year terms which expire on June 30.

A budget committee member is expected to spend up to 20 hours that includes reviewing the budget and meeting one to three times from May through June each year. The committee may be called to meet again during the year in the event of a significant budgetary change.

For more information, call the port office at 541-997-3426.

Rotarians say 'Sky's the Limit' for annual auction this Saturday

Anyone who is craving a round-the-world trip need go no farther than the Florence Events Center on Saturday, March 12.

The annual Florence Rotary Auction is headed for some exotic destinations. Start in Belgium or Germany. Then stop off in the Principality of Monaco. Isn't there a casino there? Perhaps a layover in Shanghai or Australia would be nice, or even a little sunbathing in the South Pacific.

If tropical retreats are your thing, try Cuba, Cabo or Kona for a little "R and R."

Closer to home, there's a chance to visit Times Square (they have painted ladies there), listen to some New Orleans jazz, or hang out in Key West, Palm Springs or Disneyland.

If that still seems like a bit much, try taking in the wonders of Veneta or the Principality of Mercer Lake.

While the destinations may be exotic, the food will be Homegrown — literally. The dinner will be catered by the chefs from Homegrown Public House and will feature many locally sourced ingredients.

The wines are homegrown as well, coming from Umpqua Valley's Reustle Prayer Rock Vineyards.

And of course there will be the always-exciting dessert

Rotarians dress up to show just some of the "destinations" that are part of this year's auction theme.

auction: 25 exquisite cakes and pies donated by the club's past presidents and created by various local chefs and bakeries.

And the wine wall will feature 60 different wines from around the world and close to home; $20 buys a bottle, which could range in value from $20 to more than $100.

All this glitz and glamour comes together for a reason: raising money for scholarships to send local students to college, as well as supporting the Siuslaw High School Interact Club and other youth-oriented projects in the community.

The Sneddons — Bob, Blair and Gerry — will once again take to the stage to auction everything from exotic trips to upscale furniture, sports packages and more.

The evening begins with a silent auction that displays the work of local artists and craftspeople, along with entertainment packages, gourmet food baskets, sports equipment and gift certificates to local restaurants and entertainment venues.

For information about tickets or donations to the auction, call Craig Sanders at 541-999-1713.

Pancake fundraiser for Caring Pregnancy Center

The Caring Pregnancy Center of Florence is hosting a pancake breakfast fundraiser Saturday, March 19, 8:30 to 11 a.m., at Florence Nazarene Church, 1536 12th St., across from the Elk's Lodge.

Mayor Joe Henry will be on hand to flip flap jacks and add to the fun.

CPC is a faith-based community service, nonprofit organization supported via primate contributions. The center offers nonjudgmental peer counseling for women and men, referrals and ongoing support for women and families.

"The CPC depends solely on the generosity of the community and many young women depend on the CPC for assistance," said CPC board president Pastor Don DeFrerichs.

Whether it be infant or tod-dlar clothing, formula, counseling or other services, CPC is there to help.

The CPC is located at 1525 12th St. in Florence. It can be reached at 541-902-2273 during business hours.

Dave's Weekly Garden Tip

It's a great time to fertilize your lawn and yard. Lawns need about one pound of nitrogen per 1000 sq ft. Organic lawn fertilizer, such as our Gardner & Bloome Organics, are a great choice, helping to build up the soil naturally while minimizing the release of harmful nitrates and phosphorous into our lakes and waterways.
