Local police make several arrests in March

Florence Police Department and other agencies announced several arrests made in or around Florence in March.

Douglas County Sheriff's Office arrested Trevor Welch on March 1. Welch had warrants out for his arrest for theft, identity theft and probation violation. He was lodged in Douglas County Jail.

According to Florence police, Welch went into Florence neighborhoods knocking on doors trying to solicit for yard or handyman work. He then provided a contract for services and asked for payment before the work was completed.

This resulted in only part of the work being completed,

Welch not returning and the victims out of at least partial payment.

Florence police arrested Robert Wright Speer on March 5 for charges of rape and sex abuse. He was lodged in Lane County Jail.
