Solution

The Catch
Thursday at 10 p.m. on KATU, KEZI
Former Emmy nominees Mireille Enos ("The Killing") and Peter Krause ("Six Feet Under") head the cast of this new stylized drama from Shonda Rhimes' ("Scandal") production company. Enos stars as Alice Vaughan, a private investigator in Los Angeles, whose perfect life crumbles when she learns her fiancé, attorney Chris Hall (Krause), is actually a grifter named Ben Jones. P.S.: He just bilked her out of millions before disappearing. Alice does not take this news well. Alimi Ballard, Sonya Walger and Jay Hayden also star.

Masterpiece Classic
Sunday at 10 p.m. on KOAC
The saga of the British department-store magnate enters its concluding round as "Mr. Selfridge Season 4" begins. Jeremy Piven returns in the title role as "Episode One" finds Harry Selfridge facing even more challenges to the financial health of Selfridges. His plan to showcase a statue saluting women gets criticism, but he forges ahead — with a surprising result. Self-assured entrepreneur Jimmy Dillon (Sacha Dhawan) causes Harry a different kind of pain.

The Late Late Show Carpool Karaoke Primetime Special
Tuesday at 10 p.m. on KVAL
One of the most popular and talked-about features of James Corden's program showcase his teamings with various music stars, singing the given artist's hits while tooling around with him or her in an automobile. This new special compiles many of those segments, with Corden's sessions with Adele and Elton John certain to be among the ones excerpted. There's also a new example staged specifically for this hour, with Jennifer Lopez joining Corden on the road.
