LRP auditions for 'Quilters' Saturday

Auditions for the play "Quilters," a two-act musical drama written by Molly Newman and Barbara Damashek, will be held Saturday, April 2, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The show is being produced by Last Resort Players.

Auditions will be held at the Florence United Methodist Church, Second and Kingwood streets.

The play requires seven women of a variety of ages from age 20 and older. The setting is the American West as a pioneer woman and her six daughters face frontier life.

Each actor will have several roles. Be prepared to sing 16 to 32 measures of Americana type music, such as "Rock of Ages," "Down in the Valley," "Amazing Grace," etc., and plan to sing with a piano or acapella. Bring piano accompaniment music if available.

Deb Young, Annie Schmidt and Meg Spencer will direct Last Resort Players' upcoming production of "Quilters," with auditions taking place Saturday, April 2.

Candidates will also read from a script. Callbacks will be on Sunday, April 3, at 1:30 p.m. if necessary. Annie Schmidt will direct, with Meg Spencer assistant directing and Deb Young as music director. For more information, call 541-997-1023.

Deadline for Soroptimist scholarships is April 15

Applications can also be sent to Florence Soroptimist Club, P.O. Box 1209, Florence, OR 97439.

Community Chorus to host patriotic concert

Beginning at 2 p.m. on Sunday, May 1, the Community Chorus of Florence will be presenting its spring concert in shades of red, white and blue.

Directed by Jennifer Meier, the chorus will bring to the audience a selection of inspiring patriotic songs such as

"God Bless America," "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America the Beautiful."

The concert will begin with a rendition of "The Star Bangled Banner."

Special guests The Flotones will provide several selections, along with the Encore Dancers tapping to "Yankee Doodle Dandy."

The Siuslaw High School Chamber Choir will perform several songs and the CROW kids will perform some tunes from their production of "Shrek the Musical, Jr."

Interspersed with these songs will be a medley of tunes by Irving Berlin, who wrote many Broadway musical and Hollywood songs during his 60-years of productivity.

Adult tickets are $10 and children under 18 will be admitted free.

Tickets can be purchased at the Florence Event Center or by calling 541-997-1994.

NextStep to host recycling roundup

Get rid of those broken or unwanted electronics Saturday, April 2, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., when NextStep Recycling of Eugene will be at the Real Food Co-op collecting anything that plugs in or runs on batteries. This includes cell phones, computers, stereos, DVD players, cords, cables, TV and vacuums.

NextStep is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide technology and training to children and adults who have barriers to employment and education, while protecting our environment and community from hazardous waste.

NextStep provides individuals and groups the opportunity to learn about the impact electronic waste has on our environment.

Joining NextStep at the collection point will be ARC of Lane County collecting unwanted clothing.

The ARC's mission is to advocate to enhance the dignity, expand the opportunities and protect the rights of persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. They provide a variety of educational and support opportunities for our families in Lane County.

Take this opportunity to get rid of unwanted items while supporting these amazing organizations.

Real Food Co-op is located at 1379 B on Rhododendron Drive. The Co-op supports local food sustainability by purchasing from local farm and food producers.

Call 541-997-3396 for more information.

WORD ON THE STREET

What is your favorite spring break memory?

As families enjoy spring break this week in many parts of Oregon, we asked a few people what they remember most about their own.

"Going to Reno once on spring break when I was 20, and never getting carded anywhere. It was great."
—STEPHANIE AMES, FLORENCE

"Coming home from college each spring, seeing my family and friends in my small resort town are my favorite memories from that time."
—JUDY FLEAGLE, FLORENCE

"My two sons taking a mission trip to Mexico with our church, during a kind of risky time there. I was proud of them for going and helping."
—RACHEL PEARSON, FLORENCE
