SHOP • DONATE • VOLUNTEER

The purpose of the habitat Restore is: to sell donated items in order to raise funds for habitat house construction and repair programs; to provide good bargains to the community; and, to keep reusable building materials, remodeling/redecorating merchandise, and appliances out of landfill sites.

TEN YEARS AND STILL GROWING!!

Quality donations are the key to helping the ReStore and Habitat for Humanity meet their goals. ReStore volunteers do a remarkable job of repairing, refurbishing and spiffing up old appliances, furniture and lighting fixtures, finding the potential in items that otherwise might be sent to the dump! Before you throw it away, consider whether a bit of cleaning or fixing will make it reusable and call the ReStore! Your donation will help someone achieve the dream of home ownership!

ReStore accepts building materials, doors, windows and trim. It also accepts tools, cabinets, hardware, lighting and plumbing fixtures, appliances and furniture. ReStore is the place to find interesting decorative items including fresh flowers! ReStore's prices are the lowest! The staff is the friendliest! The inventory changes daily so it is never the same old, same old.

The Oregon PaintCare Program, in partnership with ReStore and the City of Florence, has installed a used paint collection site behind the ReStore. Re-usable paint products are sold at the ReStore. Paint that cannot be resold is collected for recycling or disposal.

AND—ReStore has a truck for pick-ups and deliveries! Don't forget to call us!

HELPING HANDS COALITION
MISSION AND VISION STATEMENT

Our mission is to assist the homeless, destitute and needy in our community. We don't replicate what other organizations are doing in our area; instead we operate a drop-in day center and referral system. The center offers, those in need, a safe place where they find out about services available in the community and get advice on how to apply for assistance locally, statewide and nationwide. Helping Hands Coalition provides direct and practical help as well as hot meals on days other groups are not providing food; vouchers for laundry, bus tickets, prescriptions, utilities, warm clothing, tents, sleeping bags, and other camping equipment, etc., articles of hygiene, and items for pets; a place for them to collect phone messages and receive their mail; as well as a place to just catch their breath and figure out what and where to go next without judgement of any kind.

*The center treats all visitors with respect,
 dignity and compassion,
 AND WITHOUT DISCRIMINATION OR JUDGEMENT OF ANY KIND.*
