

THE RECORD

OBITUARY

OSBON— Nancy (Nan) Jean Osbon, 82, passed away March 6, 2016.

Nan was born May 12, 1933, in Thralia, Texas, to Benjamin and Margaret Fuchs.

She and her sister were raised in the Watts area of Los Angeles, Calif.

Nan was baptized and confirmed into the Lutheran faith and enjoyed singing as a child. Her first job in high school was working at the Leimert Theater in Los Angeles as an usher.

Nan married Irwin Osbon (Ozzie) May 8, 1953, at Mount Calvary Lutheran in Los Angeles.

Nan opened her own real estate office, Plaza Realty, in Palos Verdes Peninsula, Calif.,

and became the first female broker on the Board of Realtors in 1956. After that, she was also a stockbroker and an insurance agent.

Nan and Ozzie worked together designing and building 10 homes in the Palos Verdes Peninsula area, as well as her home in Florence.

They did a lot of RV traveling, approximately three to six months each year, visiting every state. Together, they traveled to Spain, South America, Mexico and Puerto Rico as well as several cruises, including the last voyage of the Lurline from Hawaii to the U.S. mainland.

Nan and Ozzie moved to Florence in December of 1999. They were among the group who decided Florence needed a LCMS church and set about to make Resurrection Lutheran their church.

Nan was involved in numerous causes, including Resurrection Lutheran Church, Lutheran Woman's Missionary League, the Florence Events Center's Friends of the FEC, Council Advisory Committee, SEACOAST Entertainment, Siuslaw Fisherman's Association, Rhododendron Society, Caring Pregnancy Center, Florence Parks and Recreation, Florence Mural Advisory Board, City Club Steering Committee, Kiwanis, Oregon Coast Military Museum and Toastmasters International.

Nan was also a former Florence City Councilor in 2003 and 2004, and councilor vice-president in 2005 and 2006.

She enjoyed watching football, going on beach walks and listening to Christian or classical music. She sought the Lord's guidance daily throughout her life and shared her blessings with others. Nan lived quietly with her cat, Cloi.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ozzie, in 2005, and leaves behind a stepson, Ron Osbon, of Fullerton, Calif.; a sister, Joan Amorelli, of San Pedro, Calif.; a niece, Terry Smith, of Manhattan Beach, Calif.; and a great niece, Timmi Jandro, of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at Resurrection Lutheran Church, 1 mile south of the Siuslaw River Bridge on Highway 101, on Thursday, April 21, at 3 p.m., followed by a reception at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St., from 4 to 6 p.m., to share stories and memories.

A donation box will be available at the FEC for Nan's favorite charities: Resurrection Lutheran Church, Boys and Girls Club of Western Lane County, Caring Pregnancy Center, CROW and SEACOAST Entertainment.

Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
