Oliver, meanwhile, landed a throw of 33 feet, 2 inches in the shot put to place seventh out of 26 athletes competing in the event.

The invitational brought athletes from a total of 17 schools to compete in the multi-divisional, non-scoring meet, offering competitors to match up against the region's best.

Senior multi-event athlete Mikaela Siegel finished the day with three top-10 finishes, beginning with second place in the 100-meter hurdles (16.21). Siegel also placed fifth in the triple jump (33 feet, 4 inches) and was ninth in the long jump (15 feet, 6.5 inches).

Siegel was joined by junior jumper Annmarie Precht in the long jump, where Precht landed third with a leap of 17 feet. The junior also placed fourth in the 200 meters (21.51).

Two other juniors had top-10 marks at the meet, including Destinie Tatum, who was third in the 400 meters (1:02.30) and 10th in the high jump (4 feet, 8 inches).

Distance-running standout Celie Mans was third in the 3,000-meter run with a time of 10:35.16.

Other top finishes for the Viking girls came from juniors Morgan Bingham, who was sixth in the 1,500-meter event (4:58.3); Kaylee Graham, who was sixth in the 100-meter hurdles (17.65); and Abby Watkins, who landed sixth in the long jump (16 feet, 1 inch).

For the boys, freshman Murray Bingham ran the 1,500 meters in 4:15 to finish seventh, and junior Jack Pickell placed 12th in the 3,000 meters in 9:39.21.

Yesterday, the Vikings were in Coos Bay for the Prefontaine Classic Far West League meet (after press deadlines).

Saturday, Siuslaw will compete in the Oregon Relays at Hayward Field in Eugene, beginning at 11 a.m.

"Marshfield's pitcher has a lot of movement on the ball, and we struggled against that last year," said O'Mara. "Hopefully, getting a look at it this early will help prepare us for when we host Marshfield later in the season, when chances are things will matter most."

Johnson, a junior returning first-team all-league pitcher for the Pirates, threw a 1-hitter in Friday's 11-1 opener.

Junior first baseman Claire Wagoner had the day's best turn at the plate for Siuslaw, connecting for three doubles and going 3-for-6 against the Pirates.

Heading into yesterday's schedule (after press deadlines), Siuslaw and Brookings were both 0-2 after being swept on Friday, with the Bruins topped by Douglas. Yesterday's single-game matchup brought the Vikings and Bruins together at Siuslaw.

Friday, the Lady Viks will host the next round of league play when the Trojans (2-0) come to Siuslaw for a double-header.

First pitch is at 3 p.m., followed by the nightcap.

Next week, the Vikings will be on the road at North Bend and South Umpqua.

NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

Siuslaw junior pitcher Michael Larson got the win during Friday's league opener against Marshfield, 8-1.

a bases-loaded RBI in the fourth inning.

In the nightcap, however, it was Marshfield that came away with the decisive win, 12-5, as the Vikings and Pirates split the opener.

It was a familiar story throughout the Far West, with all six teams going 1-1 during Friday's doubleheaders.

Yesterday, Siuslaw was on the road at Brookings (after press deadlines).

Friday, the Vikings will be on the road again, taking on the Trojans at Douglas in a doubleheader that begins at 3 p.m.

Next week, Siuslaw will host games on Tuesday and Friday, beginning with North Bend on Tuesday at 5 p.m.
