Florence PTA scholarship deadline set for April 15

The Florence Community PTA announces that they will be offering four $500 scholarships to 2016 high school graduates who intend to pursue a career in teaching or working with children or youth in some capacity.

These scholarships are open to graduates of Siuslaw High School and home-schooled students in the Florence area. Students must plan to attend an accredited college, community or university. Students must demonstrate academic potential or achievement, leadership and character. The following items must accompany the application: a financial statement, an official transcript of grades, a resume, and at least one letter of recommendation.

Applications are available through the Siuslaw High School Student Services, or can be downloaded from the PTA website at www.florencepta.org. Deadline for applications is April 15. Completed applications can be mailed to: Florence Community PTA, P.O. Box 1140, Florence, OR 97439. PTA is parents, teachers, and community working together to improve the education, health, safety and well-being of our children and youth. The Florence PTA serves all of the schools in the Siuslaw School District, K-12. Everyone is welcome to join PTA. Download a membership form from the website.

Community poets invited to write Haiku

The Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) Poetry Committee is celebrating April as National Poetry month, with an invitation to the Florence community to write a haiku poem. A haiku is an unrhymed three-line poem, based on a traditional Japanese poetic form; write the first and last lines with five syllables each, and the middle line with seven syllables.

The subject matter for the haiku is a celebration of Florence — the river, ocean, dunes, places or the people. All haiku poems need to be emailed to Bettieandkiki@yahoo.com (put Haiku in subject line) or turned into the FRAA Art Center, 120 Maple St., in Old Town, by Friday, April 15, at 5 p.m.

Include your name, phone number, email and age if you are under 18.

The best of the poems will be added to mixed media pieces and hung around town until May 7, when they will be brought to the Florence Events Center to decorate for the Spoken Word Poetry Contests which take place that day.

The main Spoken Word Poetry Contest starts at 6 p.m. with a $10 admission fee. For more information, call Bettie Egerton at 503-910-3625 or visit www.fraaoregon.org.
