

THE RECORD

Sheldon Meyer joins WLCF board of directors

It was fortunate for new Western Lane Community Foundation (WLCF) board member Sheldon Meyer that his resume contains a long list of board-of-director experience, as there was no time to waste with WLCF Community Grants season in full swing.

Starting Jan. 1, Meyer acquired the WLCF board seat vacated by long-time board member Roger McCorkle, who had dedicated 12 years to the foundation.

Meyer's board experience is varied and extensive; he served on Mental Health Association of Southwestern Oregon, Bay Area Transportation District in Coos Bay, South Western Community College and he is a past mayor and current board member of the

Meyer has 30 years of management experience in college and hospital administration, along with eight years of college and university teaching, research, writing experience in counseling, psychology, gerontology, adult education and communications.

He received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Utah and his master's degree and PHD from Oregon State University.

Meyer retired from South Western Community College as vice president of administrative services in 2008.

When asked what was the draw to be on the WLCF board, Meyer said, "Being on the WLCF Board allows me to help give back to our community and be a part of an organization which advances individuals and groups in doing their good things."

When asked what he thought of being involved in his first WLCF annual Community Grant Program, Meyer was straightforward.

"The grant process and outcome were very impressive. It involved a lot of soul searching and group effort to arrive at what we as a group saw as the best solutions to the many requests," he said.

WLCF has nine volunteer board directors and a volunteer executive director. Directors can serve maximum of two consecutive three-year terms. Serving with Meyer is board President Cindy Forsythe, Vice President Tom Bassett, Secretary Pat Stewart, Treasurer Dee Osborne, as well as Jim Grano, Ray Mans, Nancy Walker and Lis Farm.

Executive director is Gayle Waiss, who previously served as a board director.

WEDDING

Cable — Jarman

Emily Cable and Casey Jarman, both of Florence, were wed in Portland, Ore., on April 8, 2016. The couple will reside in their recently-purchased first home in Portland, where they will continue pursuing their careers.

Casey is a writer and journalist, and Emily works in the library system for Salem.

Their families were on hand for the short wedding ceremony at Portland's popular "Karaoke House," where their good friends served as witnesses.

A reception will be held in Florence in June, with date and time to be announced.

Greener Florence Award nominations due April 20

Are you, or do you know, a Florence area business or service organization that is mindful of its impact on the environment? Nominate yourself or another for the 2016 Greener Florence Award.

The City of Florence wants to support and recognize those businesses and organizations giving that extra effort to "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle or Compost." The winning nominee will be announced in May and will receive:

- Certificate signed and presented by Florence Mayor Joe Henry

- Promotion and recognition
- A plaque inscription on view in the City Hall lobby

Nomination forms are available under the City Leadership Boards and Commissions Tab at www.ci.florence.or.us, by contacting Wendy Farley-Campbell at 541-997-8237 or wendy.farleycampbell@ci.florence.or.us.

farleycampbell@ci.florence.or.us.

The completed nominations must be submitted to the Planning Department at 250 Highway 101 by 5 p.m. on April 20.

Round up household hazardous waste today

Lane County is holding a free hazardous waste roundup for households and will collect up to 35 gallons of hazardous waste per customer.

Businesses, schools, churches or nonprofit organizations are subject to disposal fees.

In Florence, the round up will be Saturday, April 16, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m., at the Florence Transfer Site, 2820 N. Rhododendron Drive.

All community members are welcome to participate in the roundup.

What to bring: Paint, household cleaners, lawn and garden chemicals, car care products, arts and crafts products, and other household hazardous waste. Check labels for words such as flammable, corrosive, poison, caution and danger.

Don't bring empty containers, drums, radioactive waste, asbestos, electronics or explosives. Any empty containers can be safely thrown in the trash.

For electronics recycling, the Florence transfer site will accept the following items for free during normal operating hours (maximum of seven items at a time): televisions, computer monitors, central processing units (CPUs) and laptops.

Call 541-682-4120 for more information regarding hazardous waste disposal for households or businesses.

60th ANNIVERSARY

Evelyn and Andrew Nordahl

Evelyn and Andrew Nordahl of Florence celebrated 60 years of marriage March 24, 2016.

The couple first met on July 17, 1955, at Cabrillo Beach in San Pedro, Calif., on the official opening day of Disneyland in Anaheim, Calif.

Andrew retired from Chevron Corp. after 26 years of service, and Evelyn retired 17 years ago as a medical office accountant.
