Board reviews new high school site plan ideas

JACK DAVIS/SIUSLAW NEWS

Siuslaw School District board member Bill McDougale and Superintendent Ethel Angal discuss the proposed site plan for the new high school prior to the April 13 board meeting. The new school building is the key component of a $36.9 million bond measure to be voted on in the May 17 election. Florence City Council voted unanimously to support the measure during its April 4 meeting. Preliminary concept design renderings may be viewed at noon at the Friday, April 22, fact sharing session at the district office board room, 2111 Oak St.

Learn about Siuslaw school bond at info meetings

Siuslaw School District Superintendent Ethel Angal is conducting information sharing and listening meetings at various locations in the coming months regarding the district asking voters to consider a bond measure to construct a new high school.
