ELKS DONATE TO CROW

COURTESY PHOTO

Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops (CROW) producer Mike Jacobson (right) recently accepted a $1,000 check from the Florence Elks #1858. The Elks returned as a "Platinum Sponsor" for CROW's recent production of "Shrek the Musical, Jr.," which ran April 15 to 17 at the Florence Events Center. The Florence Elks are committed to providing the highest quality arts experiences for local youth. "CROW is deeply humbled and truly grateful for the Elks' ongoing Platinum Sponsorship," said Jacobson. For more information about CROW, visit www.crowkids.com.

Public invited to Toastmasters open house

The public is invited to attend an open house for Siuslaw Tale Spinners Club, the local Chapter of Toastmasters International. The open house is Saturday, April 30, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Siuslaw Public Library, 1460 Ninth St.

Since 1924, Toastmasters International has been recognized as the leading organization dedicated to communication and leadership skill development.

Toastmasters helps more than a quarter million men and women of every ethnicity, education level and profession build their competence in communication so they can gain the confidence to lead others.

By regularly giving speeches, gaining feedback, leading teams and guiding others to achieve their goals, leaders emerge.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend the open house and discover all that Toastmasters has to offer.

For more information, contact Anne Machalek at 541-999-5357.
