'Catch the Wave' with Rhody Days window display contest

Help spread the excitement of the 109th annual Rhododendron Festival by entering the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce's Rhody Festival Window Display Contest.

The theme for this year's window display contest and the entire festival is "Catch the Wave!" The Window Display contest is open to any business or organization in the City of Florence.

There is no entry fee, and there are no divisions this year. Windows will be judged on the following:

- Overall appearance and attractiveness.
- Use of this year's Rhododendron Festival theme "Catch the Wave!"
- Use of color — this year's logo has lots of colors!
- Creativity and originality.
- Signage: The window should have a sign or window paint that reads: "Rhododendron Festival May 20 to 22, 2016" that can be read from the street and be less than 50 percent of the total window area. Windows need to be decorated by non-professional window decorators. Windows should remain decorated throughout the three-day Rhododendron Festival.

Entry forms are available at www.florencechamber.com. Drop completed entry forms off at the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce Visitor's Center, 290 Highway 101, by Monday, May 16. Judging will occur between May 17 and 19.

Any business whose windows are not ready in time for judging will be disqualified.

Businesses may loan out their windows to other businesses for the contest. Winners will be presented with a plaque they can proudly display in their business and will be featured in media posts.

For more information about the Window Display Contest, call the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce at 541-997-3128 or email info@florencechamber.com.

Girl Scouts give to Food Share

Troop 11752 donates cookies to Florence Food Share

By JACK DAVIS
Siuslaw News

Every year local Girl Scout troops offer people the opportunity to purchase Girl Scout cookies for charities and local nonprofit organizations and services through a program called "The Gift of Sharing."

Troop 11752 leader Lisa Spencer said, "As part of the Girl Scout cookie sales, 'The Gift of Sharing' is offered to people that want to help the Girl Scouts, but don't want to purchase cookies. 'The Gift of Sharing' allows those people to purchase cookies, then each individual troop chooses a charity or nonprofit organization to receive the cookies."

This year, troop 11752 chose Florence Food Share to receive the 40 boxes of cookies the troop sold as part of the program. Other Florence area troops donated cookies to Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue and the Florence Police Department.

"We let the girls decide," Spencer said. "It is all girl led. We gave them a few choices and they chose Florence Food Share."

Troop 11752 sold more than 3,000 boxes of cookies during the recent cookie sale, 40 of which were for "The Gift of Sharing" program.

"I'm thankful the Girl Scout troop thought of Florence Food Share to donate the 'Gift of Sharing' cookies," Florence Food Share executive Director Norma Barton said. "We are always low on snack items, so this really does come in handy."
