

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

PRICHARD—Marieta N. Prichard, 94, of Florence, returned to the loving arms of her Lord and Savior on March 28, 2016, in the comfort of her own home.

Marieta Prichard

She was born Sept. 7, 1921, to Peary and Nola Hoyt, in Newton, Iowa, where she grew up and graduated from high school.

She was married to L.A. "Shag" Prichard for 58 years. They moved to Florence in 1981 to be close to their grandchildren.

She was a faithful member of the Florence Christian Church, and beloved by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She made regular visits to shut-ins until she could no longer do so. She enjoyed studying her Bible, reading, sewing and gardening.

She was a resourceful homemaker, knew how to make a dollar stretch to its limits, and was a wonderful wife and mother. She was trained as a Licensed Practical Nurse.

She was an active Senior

Girl Scout leader and enjoyed hiking, backpacking and camping along the Skyline Trail and other locations.

In later years she hiked and picnicked with the Wonder Seekers. Now she is hiking the trails of heaven and marveling at the wonders there with her family and friends, including her three brothers: Doyle, Myrle and Peary Hoyt Jr., and their wives.

Someday she will lovingly greet those she left behind, including her son, Michael Prichard of Laramie, Wyo.; her daughter, Sherrie, and son-in-law Roger McCorkle, of Florence; grandson Daniel McCorkle and his wife, Lorri; and their children: Faith and Isaiah of Hillsboro, Ore.; granddaughter Pamela and her husband, Josh Hight; and their sons: Jason and Kyle of Florence.

Her celebration of life will be held Saturday, May 7, at 2 p.m., at the Florence Christian Church.

Gifts and donations can be given to the FCC Prime Timers Scholarship Fund, The Caring Pregnancy Center or Food Share.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Inurnment was held at Pacific Sunset Cemetery.

EVANS—John "Bud" Evans Jr., 88, of Florence, passed away April 21, 2016.

John Evans

Bud was born May 26, 1927, to John and Charlet Evans, in Cleveland, Ohio.

He soon became "Buddy" to John Sr. They had wonderful times together with fishing and hunting.

At age 17, Bud left school to join the Navy. He went to bootcamp, returned to get his diploma there after returning to active duty on a transport near the finish of the war.

After the war finished, Bud began his adventures in the work forces. He worked on a ranch as a cowboy, then the ranch facility at Pomona College and other small jobs. He decided to marry Dorothy Lupy in 1950.

Then married life began.

They had children John III, Kathleen and Jeff while Bud was a Covina policeman and later an L.A. Deputy Sheriff, until a heart attack put him out of commission with a retirement.

He became an Insurance company owner, health food store owner, did house sales and house building.

Eventually, Bud and Dorothy divorced.

It was a new job for Bud and later a new wife, who brought two boys. They bought and sold a few houses until they built their own ranch home.

They had horses, a few cattle and small groups of llama during the winter. Suddenly, his wife became ill and died in just 61 days.

Bud always hated to be alone. He remembered Jackie, whose husband had died recently. They were married in 1991. He retired, they bought an RV and began traveling and having fun. They bought two houses in Bend then moved to Florence and lived in two more houses.

What a wonderful life Bud had.

The funeral will be held Friday, April 29, at 11 a.m., at St. Mary's Catholic Church, south of Florence. Refreshments will be served afterward at his home on Rosemary Court.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Early Rhody Show winners announced

The April 16 and 17 Early Rhododendron Show at the Florence Events Center has named the top five winners.

There were 687 entries from buds to open flowers and almost the same numbers of visitors to the Siuslaw Chapter's annual April show.

The Sweepstake winner was Jim Smith of Mapleton.

Best in Show went to Terry Talbot with his "Black Widow" flower entry. Talbot also won the raffle prize of a rhododendron plant named "Sea View."

Other raffle prize winners were Linda Wylie, who won a rhododendron plant called "Glowing Gold," and Steven

Price, who won a rhododendron plant called "True Blue."

The Late Rhododendron Flower Show will be during Rhody Fest Weekend, May 21 and 22, at the Florence Events Center.

The public is invited to this free event.

Siuslaw Chapter of the American Rhododendron Society meetings are held at the Presbyterian Church of the Siuslaw, 3996 N. Highway 101.
