Adele Live
in New York City
Friday at 8 p.m. on
KGW, KOBI

With her album “25” one of the biggest instant successes in modern music history, the Grammy and Oscar winner performs in a concert taped in November 2015 at Radio Music Hall ... and this re-edited telecast adds five more songs. Interestingly, Adele was teamed with Lorne Michaels — whose “Saturday Night Live” she had just appeared on again — in also executive-producing the special. “Hello” and the Oscar-winning “Skyfall” are among her selections here.

First Impressions With Dana Carvey

Tuesday at 10:31 p.m. on USA

With a justifiably famous impersonation of President George H.W. Bush under his belt during his years on "Saturday Night Live," Carvey's a natural host for this engaging new series in which he and co-host Freddie Prinze Jr. welcome up-and-coming impressionists for a half-hour battle of vocal impersonations, cheered on by all-star guests. For tonight's series premiere, that celebrity guest is Steve Carell ("The Office").

KATU, KEZI

"Dancing With the Stars" veteran Derek Hough and music's Kesha guest star in the new episode "After You've Gone," both figuring into Juliette's (Hayden Panettiere) efforts to lobby for an Oscar nomination for her work in "Shenandoah Girl." Rayna (Connie Britton) has close-to-home concerns about the pitfalls that new artists can run into. Scarlett's (Clare Bowen) patience with Gunnar (Sam Palladio) and Autumn Chase (guest star Alicia Witt) runs out.
