

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

WHITE—Joyce Lorraine White, 72, passed away May 17, 2016, in Florence. She will be laid to rest during the summer in Albion, Idaho, next to her father.

Joyce White Joyce was born in Alexandria, La., to Lelia and James Snodgrass on Sept. 4, 1943.

She married Henry Thomas White on Sept. 6, 1961, in Jerome, Idaho, and a few years later they moved to Florence, where Joyce lived until she passed away. Together, they had three children: Sheryl, James and Thomas.

She loved the outdoors, hunting, fishing and her favorite place to camp was Lost Lake on the Santiam pass.

Joyce and Tom owned the Krab Kettle seafood market but in her younger years and later in life she worked as a waitress.

She is survived by her children: Sheryl and Jerry Phillips, Jim and Michelle White and Tom and Shalon White; seven grandchildren and their spouses: Jeri Lynn (Phillips) and Kyle Busenitz, Katie (Phillips) and Cameron Burke, Devin and Courtney White, Lindsey and Marika White, Kiera and Rhian Hollister; three great-grandchildren: Kyler and Gracie Busenitz and Sutton Burke; and her brother, James L. Snodgrass.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

WHITE—Gerald L. "Jerry"

White, 77, of Florence, son of Pearl and William White of New Castle, Pa., passed away May 11, 2016.

Jerry passed away after a short battle with cancer and will be missed by all who knew him.

He was a member of the Florence Elks and Siuslaw Friendship Club. He worked 33 years for the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power as an electrical lineman. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, coaching sports, and camping, but mostly playing with his sons.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, with an honorable discharge.

Jerry and Jean were married almost 57 years.

He is survived by his wife, Jean, of Florence; his sister, Judith Bartberger, of New Castle, Pa.; and three sons: Mark of Los Angeles, Ca., (wife Bernice), Alan of Fort Mohave, Ariz., (wife Wendy) and Kevin of Laughlin, Nev.; seven grandchildren: Dayna, Sally-Jean, Tawni, Tyler, Torey, Elliana and Harrison; and five great-grandchildren: Seth, Jaedin, Kylee, Rylie and Tucker.

There will be a memorial service at Florence Elks Lodge #1858, 1686 12th St., in Florence, on Sunday, June 12, from 2 to 4 p.m.

He formerly drove the cancer bus to Eugene and the DAV van to Portland. Contributions can be made in his name to support the cancer bus: "Friends of Florence," P.O. Box 598, Florence, OR 97439.

Jerry's wishes were to be cremated and he will be laid to rest in Pacific Sunset Cemetery in Florence.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home and Siuslaw Crematory is in charge of all arrangements.

Ostrom—Sumner William "Bill" Ostrom, 97, formerly of Florence, passed away April 12, 2016.

Bill was born Feb. 4, 1919, to Master Sergeant

Bill Ostrom

Lola Ostrom at Ft. Columbia, Wash. Master Sergeant Sumner was in charge of search lights at the mouth of the Columbia River.

After the war, the family moved to Milwaukie, Ore., where Bill graduated from Milwaukie High School in 1936. He then attended Oregon State College, married his high school sweetheart and joined the U.S. Army Air Corps.

He always loved adventure, the Oregon coast, fishing, clamming, bowling, boating, RVing and "Jinx" (Norma), to whom he was married for 68 years until her death in 2010.

Bill managed the Lower Columbia River Bowl in Astoria, Ore., before starting the Trophy Case in Warrenton, Ore. After retiring, Bill and Jinx moved to Florence, where they enjoyed life and many friends.

Their second retirement found them again in Warrenton, and then Seaside, Ore., and Neawanna By The Sea, where Bill remained until his death.

Bill was a giver. If there was a need, he wrote a check. His many friends remember a man who always gave a smile, a kind word and always had a humorous story to tell.

He loved a good discussion. Bill is survived by his two daughters: Nancy Hopp of Gearheart, Ore., and Patricia Beyer of Milwaukie, Ore; six grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

A family memorial celebration will be held July 4 at the mouth of the Columbia River.

MEAD—Ronald Mead, 82, formerly of Mapleton, passed away Tuesday, May 25, 2016, in Lebanon, Ore.

He was born Feb. 19, 1934, to Herbert J. and Elizabeth Mead. He attended school in Mapleton, Ore.

Ron served four years in the U.S. Navy, from 1951 to 1955, and served on the U.S.S. Bryce Canyon in Japan. He worked most of his life as a heavy equipment operator in the logging industry.

He is survived by his children: Karen Cromwell (Monty), Peggy Sue Thompson (Marty), Barbara Westercamp (Mark), Paula Carrigan (Brandon), Randy Mead (Pam) and many grandchildren.

A memorial service is planned for this summer.

CAPORALE—David A. Caporale, 67, of Florence, passed away May 30, 2016.

Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
