Blues master to perform at KXCR fundraiser

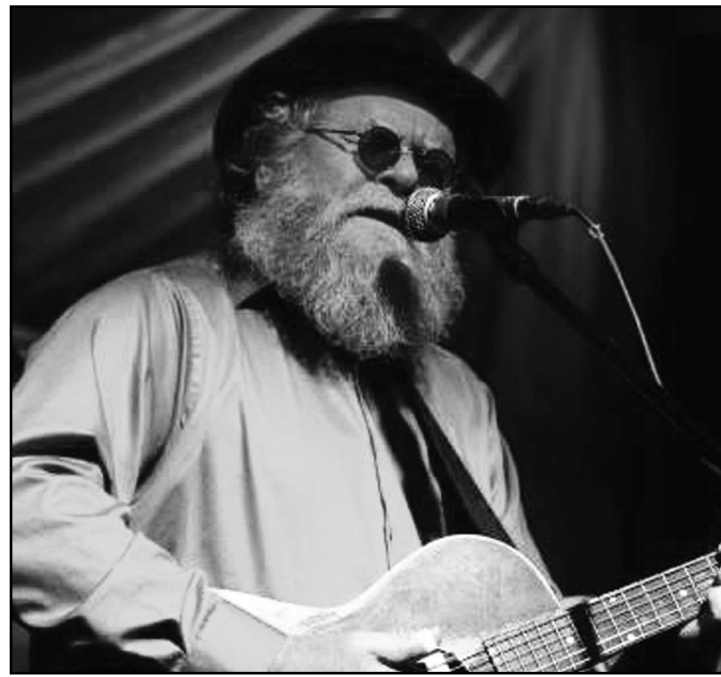

Blues master Walker T. Ryan will perform at a fundraising event Saturday, June 4, for community radio station KXCR 90.7 FM.

“Walker T. is the real deal. A bluesman, a Delta bluesman,” says Ken Babbs, original Merry Prankster.

It’s an assessment that is shared by the audience members who attended his last Florence appearance in 2013.

“One of the most memorable musical performances I’ve experienced in the (Siuslaw Public Library’s) Bromley Room,” said Stu Henderson. “Walker T. blew us away. KXCR just had to get him back.”

This time, the venue has changed. Ryan will perform at the Kenneth B Gallery, 1458 First St. in Old Town, but the excitement remains.

“Not only do we get to hear a reprise of the songs and stories of Walker T.’s long hard-working musical career, KXCR, in addition, will be offering a food and beverage spread and silent auction bargains to help our volunteer-powered station,” says Henderson.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

There is a $10 cover charge.

A silent auction will be held from 7 to 8 p.m., with the performance running from 8 to 11 p.m.

All are welcome to attend tonight’s blues benefit to support local community radio, KXCR 90.7 FM.

Gypsy Camp Market continues today at FEC

An extravagant vintage flea market will continue today during the Gypsy Camp Vintage Market at the Florence Events Center, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Admission is $5 and free to those who attended on Friday.

“We’re very excited to offer a vintage flea market to the Oregon coast,” said Josh Berggren of Gypsy Camp Vintage Market. “We know the demand for vintage goods is growing each year. Our mission is to provide a diverse selection of vintage, antique and flea market goods to share with our market guests.”

Throughout the market, vendors will be offering antique, vintage, re-purposed and up-cycled goods in all styles: French-inspired, shabby-chic, western, industrial, beach décor and more.

In addition, there will be an entire section dedicated to outdoor living, including Gypsy-camp style vintage trailers and camp gear just in time for camping season.

“My family has always had a passion for decorating and entertaining, whether at our home or on the road in our travel trailers,” said Berggren. “Trips to Europe have helped define our taste for old-world, well-used and time-worn furnishings paired with elegant crystal, silver and rich linens. We take all these ideas and bring them on the road with us at our markets.”

Berggren explained that, historically, gypsy camps were known for bright, colorful people selling their wares from carts and wagons, setting up and tearing down their camps as they traveled, bringing to towns all across the world unique crafts, house wares, décor and collectibles.

“When I came across a photo taken in 1906 of a gypsy camp in Paris, I knew this was our brand,” said Berggren. “Our merchandise mission is similar to that gypsy lifestyle — we love all things chippy, rusty and well used and made with quality.”

Among the 50 vendors expected to participate, there will be wine and cheese vendors, or stop by for a snack or meal offered by Mon Ami.

“We hope to inspire people to create beautiful, inviting spaces and share our gypsy spirit with guests,” said Berggren.

ATHLETE

of the year

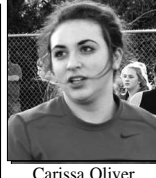

Name: Kenneth Thrall
School: Siuslaw High School

Kenneth Thrall used both legs... sometimes just one of them... to gain entry into the Siuslaw football record book. He holds the school record for the best season kicking point-after... 33 of 34 this season, a .971 average. His career average over three years... 114 of 128... is .891 and is second best. Kenneth was named to the 1st team all Far West League at three positions... running back, linebacker and punter. He was second team kicker. He also was named honorable mention at the state level as a punter where he had a 31.4 yard average.

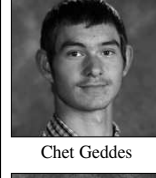

Thrall carried the ball 129 times this year for 724 yards and ten touchdowns. He kicked 33 point after and one field goal for a total of 96 points on the year. In his three year varsity football career he scored 216 points total. He maintained a 31.4 yard punting average on 80 punts in his career and his 62 yard punt this year against Hidden Valley was the fourth longest on record... just two yards short of the longest.

Kenneth went out for basketball this year... a sport he played simply for the fun of... and contributed to the team well. On the baseball diamond, Thrall led the team with a .419 batting average on the year; 465 in league play and never struck out. He was a team captain and was chosen by his teammates as their player of the year. He was named the league's 1st team shortstop and earned honorable mention at the state level. He will play in the 4A all star game in Roseburg.

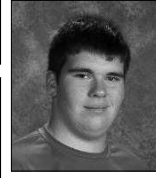

Kenneth will continue his baseball career next year. He intends to attend Linn Benton Community College where he'll be working the infield.

ATHLETE

of the year

Name: Mikaela Siegel
School: Siuslaw High School

Mikaela Siegel didn't play basketball this year but there's no disputing her athletic prowess... she was a member of the cross country team, but her biggest impact was in track and field. The most notable achievement was in repeating as the state champion in the 100 meter high hurdles. She was 3rd at district in the long jump and second in the triple jump, finishing 7th and 5th respectively in those events at state. In March, Mikaela competed at the Summit Heptathlon in Bend, finishing 4th overall with 3,229 points. She won the 800 meter, the 100 meter hurdles; and was in the top five in four other events.

Siegel is a repeat winner as Athlete of the Year. She also earned this distinction last year as a junior. Siegel has committed to competing in Moscow, Idaho next year at the University of Idaho.
