Cabrina LeAnn Dias

PARENT(s): Richard Dias and Brianne Dias
 FAVORITE HIGH SCHOOL MEMORY: Meeting new, interesting, and diverse people who are now my friends.
 BEST ADVICE RECEIVED: "No matter how much it hurts, no matter how depressed or stressed you are, just keep a smile on that pretty face because it will get better one day." - Really good friend Mark
 PLANS AFTER GRADUATION: I plan on going to a two year community college for the basics then after those two years transfer to a good medical school with lots to offer.
 HOPES, DREAMS & ASPIRATIONS: Finish college and work in the ER as a nurse or doctor. Get married someday, live in a nice home and have kids of my own someday.
 GOOD ADVICE FOR UNDERCLASSMEN: Don't procrastinate. It puts you in a major bind and a bad position. You might have to possibly retake class and don't let what others say to you break you down and get in the way of your dreams. Follow your dreams and you're perfect just the way you are.
