Candlelight vigil planned Thursday for Orlando victims

The Rev. Georgia DuBose of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church and Judy Schwartz of the Florence Jewish Community invite citizens of the Florence area to a candlelight remembrance vigil for the people who died as a result of the massacre at the Pulse nightclub in Orlando, Fla., on Sunday.
The event will begin Thursday, June 16, at 9 p.m., in the labyrinth behind St. Andrew's, 2135 19th St. at the corner of Tamarack, one block east of Spruce.
It will consist of silence, spoken meditations, prayers and music and will last about a half hour.
It is suggested to arrive before 9 p.m. if you need to park. There is a parking lot at the church.
This is an interfaith, ecumenical spiritual event, not a political one.
Organizers instead encourage people who have opinions to express, in one direction or another, to contact their legislators or to arrange public forums.

"We strongly encourage people who wish to pray, meditate or express support for those who have died and for their loved ones to come Thursday evening," DuBose said.
Attendees are asked to bring a votive candle in a glass container or an electronic vigil light.
For more information, call The Rev. Georgia C. DuBose at 541-305-5549.

Cancer patients need volunteer drivers

The Friends of Florence van program is in need of volunteer drivers.
The free program provides transportation to individuals who are undergoing radiation treatment in Eugene and Springfield.
Drivers are needed Monday through Fridays, leaving PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center, 400 Ninth St., at 8 a.m., and returning around 12:30 p.m.

Volunteers are usually asked to drive only one day a month. The only requirement is that drivers are less than 80 years old with a clean driving record.
Anyone interested in volunteering for the important community program can contact Bart Mealer at 541-997-8663 or Dan Clements at 541-902-0883.
