The Rick and Corrine Gehlke All-Star Baseball Tournament played host to three divisions — Rookies, Minors and Majors — with 12 teams competing within each division over Father's Day weekend at Miller Park. In addition to free baseball for spectators, the tournament, organized by the Siuslaw Baseball Association (SBA), also had hamburgers, hot dogs, pulled pork sandwiches, biscuits and gravy, chili Frito boats, soda, Gatorade and more available for purchase. Funds raised went to support the SBA program. On hand for the event and cooking up burgers and hot dogs was Florence Mayor Joe Henry. When the final scores were tallied, the top three teams in each division were: Rookies — first place North Bend, second place Siuslaw and third place Tillamook; Minors — first place Coos Bay, second place Tillamook and third place Siuslaw; Majors — first place Coos Bay, second place Umpqua Valley Blue and third place Newport.
