Greatest Hits
Thursday at 9 p.m. on KATU, KEZI

Your favorite songs from the past several decades may be included — along with their original artists — in this new series hosted by Arsenio Hall and country music's Kelsea Ballerini. Among those slated to appear during the show's run: Backstreet Boys, Rick Springfield, Foreigner, Wilson Phillips, Chicago and Boyz II Men. For those who've never seen a jukebox, there's also Meghan Trainor and Pitbull. This premiere focuses on tunes from 1980 through 1985.

Angel From Hell
Saturday at 8 p.m. on KVAL

The Jane Lynch-starring sitcom didn't last long, but it returns to play off stories that didn't air previously. In "Angel Probation," Amy (Lynch) serves just that after she's caught in the act of cheating — resulting in the loss of her powers. To get them back, she has to perform a series of good deeds, some involving her usual beneficiary Allison (Maggie Lawson). Another new episode, featuring guest star Laura Bell Bundy ("Hart of Dixie"), follows.

Macy's 4th of July Fireworks Spectacular
Monday at 8 p.m., 10 p.m. on KGW, KOBI, KMTR

New York is a location again for one of television's annual displays of color in the sky, as this event marks its 40th anniversary of signifying the country's celebration of Independence Day. The early part of the show will boast performances by musical guests including Kenny Chesney, Meghan Trainor and 5 Seconds of Summer — but as the hour gets later, eyes will be directed upward for the bountiful pyrotechnics. "Today's" Willie Geist and Tamron Hall host.
