

Memories to be made at North Bend Jubilee

Celebrate city's incorporation at 2-day event, July 15-16

NORTH BEND — This year will be the 113th year since incorporation papers were filed by L.J. Simpson to make the city of “North Bend” official.

To commemorate this event, North Bend will be celebrating the July Jubilee during the weekend of July 15 and 16.

The theme this year, “North Bend Gateway to the Bay Area,” is a reminder of days gone by and the many struggles the area has gone through to survive, overcome adversity and thrive.

This year marks the 80th commemoration of the McCullough Bridge, as well as 100 years for the Coos Bay Rail Line and the 100-year anniversary for Simpson and Ferry Road Parks.

North Bend and the bay area have gone through the labor pains of establishing the infrastructures and outer structures which include the building of ships, airport, railway, bridges, schools and local government.

Reflections of its local history and its past give an important glimpse to North Bend’s future.

Hopefully, during this time, residents and visitors alike will all be reminded of the city’s beautiful heritage and historical treasures.

Come celebrate North Bend’s 113th birthday with the many festivities throughout town.

There will be something for everyone, including free hot dogs, ice cream, a 5-K run, the All-Car Show and Shine, free swimming and bowling, a parade, pretty princesses, lots of entertainment at the Liberty Theatre, a George Strait Tribute at the North Bend Lanes, disc golf and car cruise.

Registration is available online for the car cruise at www.julyjubilee.com.
