OBITUARIES

PHELPS—Betty Louise Van Riper Phelps, of Florence, beloved wife of Delbert Phelps, passed away June 16, 2016, in her home with her husband, Del, at her side.

Betty Phelps

Betty was born in Tillamook, Ore., and spent her early years there. She then lived in the greater Portland area until 1991, when she moved with her sister and husband to Florentine Estates.

Her careers included modeling, pay master for Pierce Freight Lines, owner of Betty's Little Acre, a nursery in N.E. Portland, and lastly owner of Ace Fence. After moving to Florence, she volunteered at the gift shop at Peace Harbor Medical Center and drove the LaPaLoma.

Betty loved flowers and gardening. She could look at any plant and tell you its name.

She loved traveling and was escorted through most of the western states by her husband, Del, after they were married on Nov. 15, 1998.

Betty is survived by her loving husband, Delbert Phelps; her sister, Nita Koford of Eugene; her sister, June Hooker, and husband Norm, of Waldport; her sons: Bruce Temple and his wife Sue, of Long Beach, Wash., David Van Riper of Portland, Gerry Van Riper, who preceded Betty in death, and the mother of his children, Colette Moore, and their grandchildren; and Jim Van Riper and his wife Sam, of Eagle Creek; and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and cousins.

Betty is also survived by her husband Del's children: Clifford Phelps and his wife Debbi, Cathy Dietz and husband Frank, Lisa Thomas, and grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Betty will be greatly missed for her love of life and her fight for it, and her love for all those around her.

She was interred at Pacific Sunset Cemetery on the hill overlooking the Siuslaw River Bridge and the dunes.

There will be a celebration of life gathering for love and remembrance of Betty on Sunday, July 24, at the Florentine Estates Club House's Florentine Room, from 2 to 4 p.m., for family and friends.

At her request, donations in her memory can be made to the Siuslaw Pioneer Museum. These can be left at the celebration or with Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

ELY—Dean Edward Ely, 82, of Florence, passed away peacefully, July 5, 2016, in the company of his loving family.

Dean was born April 9, 1934, in Montpelier, Ind., to Mary and Leslie Ely, where he grew up on the family farm.

Despite his worldly travels in the service and his success in business later in life, his appetite at the dinner table would always reveal his good ol' farmboy heritage. He had two brothers, Donn and Dick; and in 1954 began dating the next "D" of the family, Deloris Kleinknight of Bluffton, Ind. The two later married on June 5, 1955.

Dean attended Purdue University and then joined the U.S. Air Force in October 1955.

He served for four years, with 18 months of that time spent overseas in Japan. After his active duty, he then served an additional two years in the reserves, receiving an honorable discharge with the title of Airman First Class.

In 1957, Dean and Deloris introduced the first of two more "Ds" to the Ely family when their daughter Diana was born. Their son, Doug, followed her in 1960.

The Ely family moved from Indiana to Texas, back to Indiana, then to New Jersey and California, then back to Texas before moving back out west to California and finally settling in Oregon — probably the whole way with Dean trying to cop a feel of Mrs. Ely and being scolded with "Dean, quit!"

In 1984, Dean's first and only grandchild was born; breaking the mold of the family of "Ds," Diana named her daughter Amber. It was love at first sight for Dean, and following the phrase "Grandpa, I need dresses," Dean produced a new dress from every business trip from then on out.

It was Dean's jobs that moved them around the country:

Franklin Electric, South Bend Lathe, Philco Ford, Fritz Co., his own company, Worldwide Transportation Consultants, and finally The Park Motel in Florence.

The Elys always made themselves a part of the locality through community and church involvement. By doing so, Dean enjoyed many deep relationships that turned into life-long friends.

Dean was passionate about sharing his love for God with anyone he met, and was never shy about giving glory to God for the many blessings in his life.

"But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit." (Jeremiah 17:7-8)

Dean was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Donn.

He is survived by his wife Deloris; his brother Dick; his daughter Diana; his son Doug; and his granddaughter Amber.

For all of those that knew him and loved him, it was we who were blessed.

Services will be held Wednesday, July 13, at 3 p.m., at Florence Christian Church, 990 Second Street in Florence.

Donations in Dean's name can be made to Florence Christian Church Prime Timers Scholarship Fund or Hospice of Florence.

PETRONI—Alfred "Al" Petroni, 72, of Florence, passed away July 2, 2016.

At his request, private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
