

Siuslaw athletics 'Booster Barn Bash' auction, dinner tickets on sale

The annual Siuslaw Athletic Booster Club auction and dinner will be a "Booster Barn Bash" on Aug. 20 at the King family barn up the North Fork. Tickets are on sale now at The Shippin' Shack, Windrift Gallery and Coastal Fitness.

Tickets are $40. There will be plenty of parking available at the event and shuttles leaving and returning to Three Rivers Casino. Three Rivers has offered a special room rate for the auction of $129 for Aug. 19 and/or Aug.

20, with $29 from each reservation going directly to the Booster Club. Just ask for the Booster Club Auction rate. Shuttle information is available at www.siuslawathleticboosterclub.com. Auction donations are welcome, including experiences, specialty items, themed baskets and cash donations are welcome for purchasing items. "We are excited to have unique items, including a Maroon 5 concert package, a Great Wolf Lodge trip, tickets to sporting events, a custom built chicken coop and more," said auction chairman Jennifer Waggoner. The Booster Club donates to the high school and middle school sports programs in significant ways. The SABC donates toward the actual cost of many of the school sports programs, providing additional funding where the district may fall short. For information, contact Jennifer King Waggoner at 541-520-1255.

Cyclists

from 1C The Ozarks. This group's route will take them through the Sierras, from Austin and through the Southwest to California, then north along the West Coast and into Canada.

Major cities along the route include Albuquerque, N.M.; Davis, Calif.; San Francisco, Calif.; Portland, Ore.; Seattle, Wash.; and Vancouver, B.C.

All three groups will reunite in Canada and ride the final 10 days together to Anchorage, Alaska, where the journey has ended since the ride's inception. On each of the three routes, the riders will make stops along the way to present grants to cancer research and treatment centers.

More than 600 students have made the trek from Austin to Alaska, collectively raising more than $7 million in the fight against cancer since the ride began in 2003.

Most of the students ride for a friend or family member who has battled cancer — and perhaps lost. A few ride in honor of their own battles with cancer, and many simply ride because they want to see an end to cancer, period.

"This is a truly inspiring group of young leaders committed to taking action and joining the fight against cancer," said David Chayer, who was named executive director of Texas 4000 in 2015. "Texas 4000 is a journey that takes grit, determination and support — that's why we think of it as a metaphor for the fight against cancer."

"To me, Texas 4000 is more about the process than the payoff," said Matthew Schneider, a University of Texas at Austin senior and Sierra Route Ride Director. "What we do is not easy. Sometimes we fail, and sometimes that failure is out of our control. Our success is in perseverance, knowing as a team that we are not alone and that our thoughts and actions can be a pillar of support for others."

To learn more about the 2016 Texas 4000 team, to make a donation or to read the riders' blogs, visit www.texas4000.org.
