

Local OHA hosts first Youth Day event

The Oregon Hunters Association — Siuslaw Chapter recently held its first annual Youth Day event, which was a big success.

During this free event that parents or guardians were required to attend with their child, clay targets, archery and .22-caliber rifles were introduced to the participants. Following a morning of instruction, participants then enjoyed a barbecue lunch.

Sponsors of the event included: ODFW, which donated the use of its educational trailer; Siuslaw Rod and Gun Club, for the use of the range; Grocery Outlet, which donated food for lunch; and Big Dog Donuts, which provided breakfast.

In addition, OSP Fish and Wildlife Division Troopers Todd Cutsforth and Lee Farrar talked with the group about safe fishing and hunting practices, and poaching and its detriment to wildlife and communities.

The event was also made successful with the help of volunteers, who gave their time to assist with the educational event.

Salmon Run to honor Shiloh Sundstrom

Registration has begun for the newly established Salmon Run 5K, which will take place Saturday, Aug. 27.

The run is hosted by the Siuslaw Watershed Council in memory of Shiloh Sundstrom.

Come celebrate the life of this beloved Deadwood resident and Mapleton High School graduate who touched the lives of many in the community.

The event will take place in Mapleton at the high school.

It will feature both a 5K and a 3K fun run/walk.

Runners can register online at www.EclecticEdgeRacing.com by clicking the Salmon Run 5K link. From there, participants can either print the mail-in registration brochure with payment or follow the instructions for online registration.
