

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

HUFF—Kimberly Ann Huff, 59, of Florence, passed away unexpectedly on July 20, 2016.

Kimberly Huff

Kim was born in Florence on Aug. 26, 1956, to H. Wayne and B. Joyce (Adams) Bollenbaugh. Kim lived her entire life in the Florence area, graduating from Siuslaw High School in 1974.

Kim married Richard Huff on Oct. 12, 1974, raising three sons during the 42-year union. As the boys grew up, she held many jobs in the area, with the last one being a phlebotomist for PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center, where she made many friends in the community.

Kim is survived by her husband Richard; father and step-mother Wayne and Tina Bollenbaugh of Mapleton; mother-in-law Betty Huff (Florence); sons Deek (Sarah) of Florence, Kyle (Sueanne) of Portland, Cory (Brande) of Albany; grandchildren: Samantha, Ricky, Alison, Colton, Aiden and Keegan; her brother Michael (Kelly) Bollenbaugh of Eugene; and sister Debra (Cal) Schiermeister of Montana.

Kim was preceded in death by her mother, Joyce Bollenbaugh, and father-in-law, Harley Huff Sr.

Kim was the grandma that always baked for her kids and grandkids, being famous for her chocolate chip cookies. She had an amazing green thumb and loved gardening and working with her flowers.

She was known for her generosity and huge heart, and will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

A celebration of life potluck will be held at Ada Grange on Saturday, July 30, at 10 a.m. Donations in her memory can be made to the Ada Grange #570 Harley Huff Sr. Scholarship fund.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

CASSEY—Charles R. Cassey, 83, formerly of Florence, passed away at his residence in Medford, Ore., on July 9, 2016.

Chuck was born and raised in Chicago, Ill., the only son of Victor and Margaret Cassey.

He started his music career at the age of 6, playing the accordion. He received his Masters of Music from the University of Illinois and then joined the Army, where he played in the U.S. Army band and later became the assistant conductor for the U.S. Army Chorus.

After leaving the Army, Chuck enjoyed a long musical career in New York and Los Angeles, applying his conducting, composing, arranging and vocal skills to film and television.

Retiring in Florence, he directed the FloTones, the community chorus and his church choir.

He is survived by his wife, Linda, and his beloved sons Charles and Andrew.

He loved his Florence community and truly enjoyed the country life out on the dunes.

A celebration of his rebirth will be held Saturday, July 30, at 1 p.m., at the Siuslaw Presbyterian Church in Florence.

SCARBERRY—Osey Scarberry, 92, of Florence, passed away peacefully July 21, 2016, while surrounded by family members.

Osey Scarberry

Osey was born in Peter Creek, Ky., and was the youngest of her siblings. She graduated high school from Pikeville, Ky.

Osey worked in her family general store until she met and married McKinley Scarberry.

They lived in Kentucky until the coal mine closures, when family encouragement led them to the Pacific Northwest, where they lived for more than 60 years. During their years together, they owned Woodsman's Nursery, where Osey enjoyed helping customers who became friends.

Osey had a warm personality with a welcoming smile, sharp wit and a sense of humor. She loved to tease friends and family members. She talked to everyone and never met a stranger.

Osey loved the game of tennis, played as often as she could, even into her 70s, winning a few local tournaments.

Perhaps her greatest joy was spent playing with and supporting her grandchildren Toni and Jeff.

Osey was preceded in death by her parents, siblings and husband of 63 years, McKinley.

She is survived by her son, Dan (Sue), of Florence and grandchildren Toni Zaback (Bob), of Corvallis, and Jeff (Paola), of Mesa, Ariz.

Her family and friends will miss her.

Special thanks to the caregivers at Hubbard's retreat, who treated her like family.

Arrangements will be handled by Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

At Osey's request, a private memorial service will be held at a later date.

VANSICKLE—Leila K. Vansickle, 66, of Florence passed away July 24.

Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
