

Relay For Life 2016 entertainment

Get ready for entertainment in the style of "Lights! Camera! Cure!" at this year's Relay For Life sound stage.

Listen to bands, singers and more with a full line-up of artists, playing throughout the 24-hour event.

Featured this year is Florence-area performer Jason Wood and his bevy of vocal students, from 5 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 13.

Wood is not a stranger to the arts.

He has been studying and performing voice, acting, piano and improv in Florence and Los Angeles for more than 27 years.

Continuing with the tradition, he currently instructs 30 students, varying from 6 to 80 years old, in both voice and piano. He also holds the title of residential music director for Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops (CROW).

They say that those who can't do, teach. But this isn't the case. Wood had the privilege of playing Matron "Mama" Morton in Last Resort Player's 2015 production of "Chicago" and is currently working on bringing a new character to Florence's stage.

Wood is excited to bring his talents to Relay For Life again. He has a personal connection to the cause, as his mother is a cancer survivor.
