FUUF supports Food Backpack program

At the end of last quarter, the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship donated $4,373 to the Women's Ministry at the Crossroads Church designated for the Backpack for Kids program, which the women's ministry manages and operates for the community's young people. This program provides at-risk students with backpacks filled with nutritious, pre-packaged food that provides three ready-to-eat meals a day for the weekends during the school year.

Backpacks are privately distributed by the grade school office to the most at-risk children. Only the school administrative staff know the identity of the recipients.

The need for weekend meals is about 60 local students.

This quarter, the Unitarian
