Salmon Run 5K returns

STORY AND PHOTOS BY NED HICKSON/SIUSLAW NEWS

On Saturday, Aug. 27, about 60 people participated in the Salmon Run 5K, hosted by the Siuslaw Watershed Council in memory of Shiloh Sundstrom, who started the event 10 years ago. The event also included a 3K walk for all ages, raffle prizes, commemorative T-shirts and live music performed by KUSH later that evening.

All money raised went to support SWC educational programs.

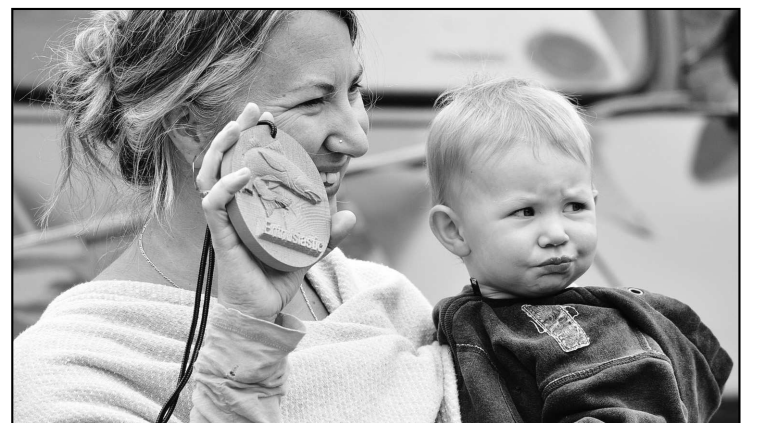

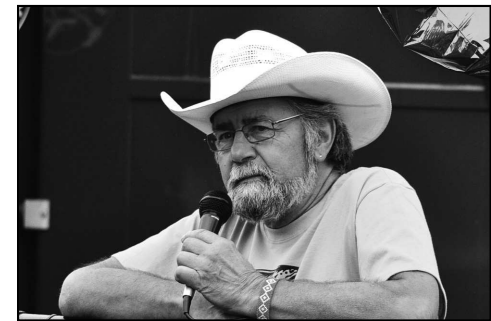

Participants who finished first in each division received a handmade wooden medal.

Steven Moser was the overall men's winner in the 5K with a time of 18:58.

Lori Carroll won the women's 5K in 23:07.

"It means a lot to see so many people turn out for this event," said Johnny Sundstrom, a member of the SWC and father of Shiloh. "He believed in giving back, and having this race up and running again in his memory and raising money for conservation education and projects is a wonderful way of continuing his legacy."
